Nightclub Magnate Opens Latest Hot Spot

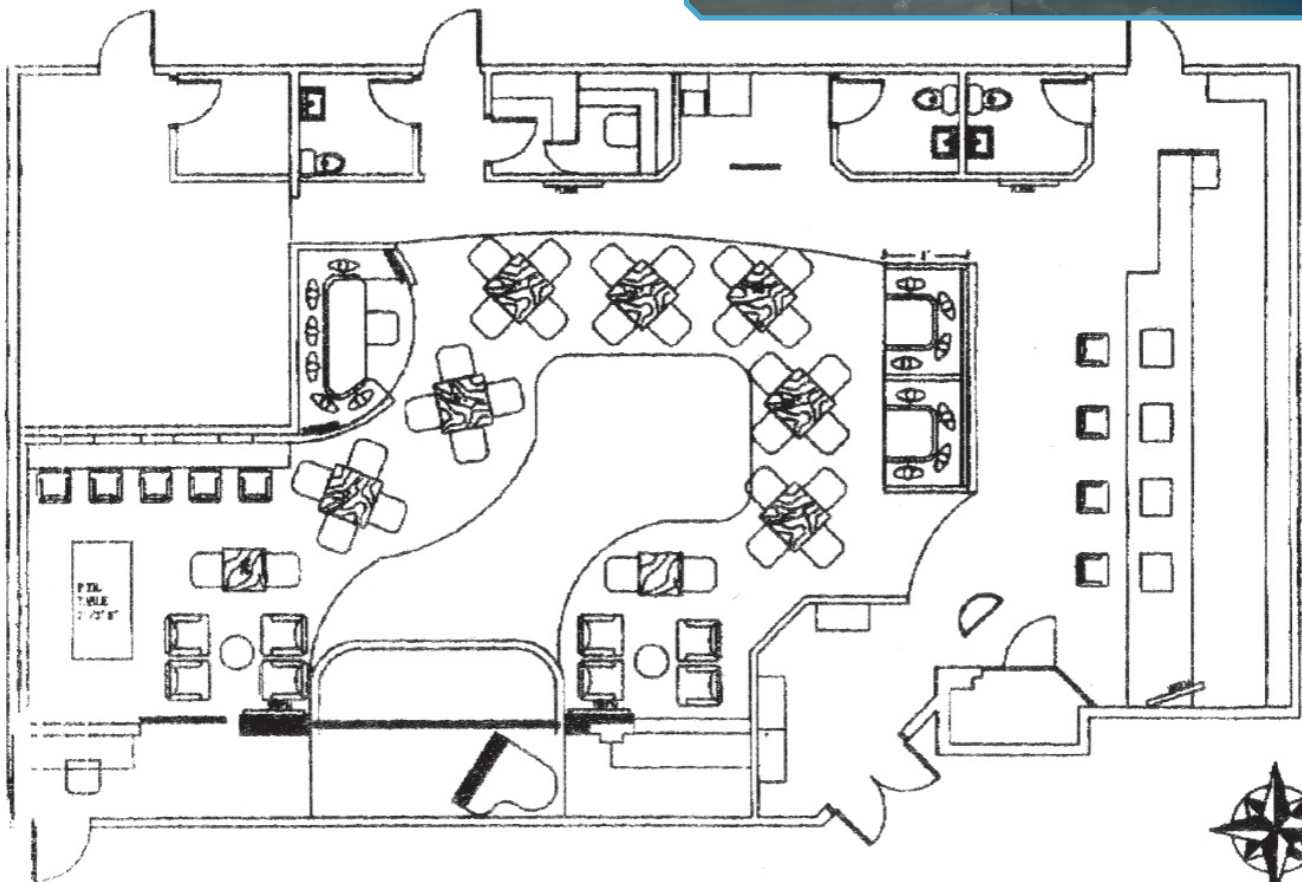

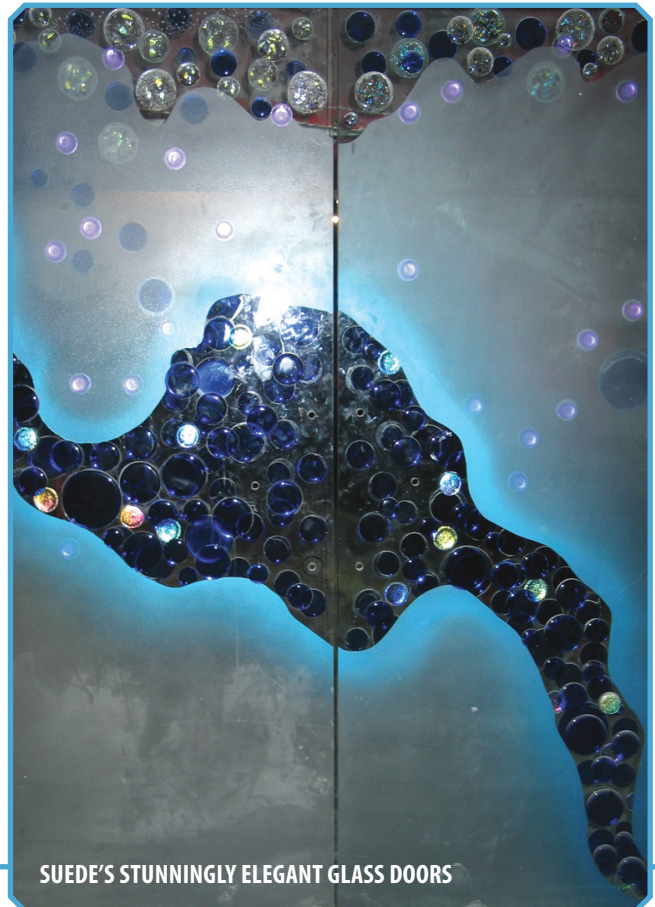

"Fabulous" came to mind when given the opportunity to sneak a peak at the newest gay hangout that will host a grand piano, dance floor and a pool table. The new Suede Restaurant and Lounge makes its debut in the Fruit Loop, off Paradise and Naples, during Pride Week on Thursday, May 26. This is the same night that sister club Gipsy hosts the Pride Boys Party.

According to owner Paul San Falipo, "I want Suede to be a comfortable place to visit. It may look like you can't put your feet up, but you can."

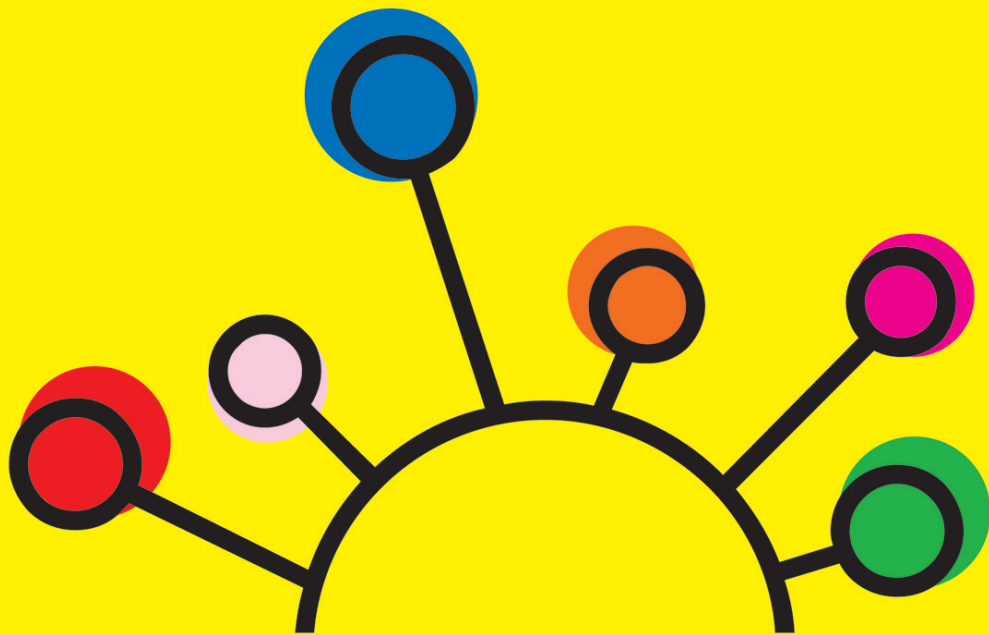

Suede will open around 5 p.m. daily and will serve dinner and appetizers, offer gaming and feature a daily happy hour. The food menu will be kept simple and inexpensive yet refreshing, and the new restaurant and lounge will include a nightly entertainment schedule for diners or those just heading out before cruising.

Suede is located at 4640 South Paradise Rd., Suite 4, in the Get Booked Shopping Center.

QVegas magazine will host a VIP Party on Saturday, June 11. To get your name added to the Qlist or for more information, email Earl@QVegas.com. ▼

My Big Gay Straight Wedding

I just went to the gayest straight wedding I've ever attended.

First of all, it was in England, and everyone knows the British always sound gay, just by virtue of the way they talk. In America, good enunciation equals queer, after all — at least in G.W. Bush country.

In addition, it was perfectly, exactly, excruciatingly well-planned and organized. My best friend is clearly a gay male control freak in a straight woman's body. The hair, the dress, the flowers, my morning suit, all were simply perfection. And I looked smashing in my — yes — lavender tie and pocket square.

The vicar at the church had to adjust to a Gentleman of Honour instead of a Matron of Honour, so during the vows there were three men and one woman up front.

I walked the bride down the aisle ("Remember, I set the pace!" she growled just as the music started). And I'm just now getting the feeling back in my arm from her excited, terrified, hopeful grip.

The reception was at a country manor house that was enough to take your breath away as you drove into view and gasped, "The reception is HERE? This is a castle!" The food was superb, the wine and champagne sublime. It couldn't have been more of a princess wedding if Disney had designed it.

After the wedding, my best friend still has her name. She didn't trade it in for his name, because it had been hers for too long to let go of. (In fact, longer than she'd like to admit.) She and he will have to decide how to address thank you notes and Christmas cards — will it be both their names or a hyphenated version? — just like a gay couple would have to do.

But none of that was the gayest part.

I learned the day before the wedding that in a slightly modified British tradition, as the Gentleman of Honour, I had to give a speech at the reception. Not a simple toast, as I had thought, but a speech. And I had a day to plan it, write it, practice it, and deliver it in front of a room of 50-some people. It had to be good. And it had to meet other needs. Because as I thought about what I would say, it hit me: she's had a parallel experience to being gay.

My best friend has always had a challenging family life (that was one of the things that drew us together — comparing notes on whose family could be more bizarre), and I knew it was painful to her that there wasn't any family there. Her beloved grandmother was now deceased, and Oma, as she called her, was the only family my friend had left. You see, people become estranged from a parent for all sorts of reasons. Gayness is just a really popular one. And there would be no parent at this wedding, an experience with which many gays can empathize. But as I thought about it, I realized that maybe I could help. Because family isn't just the people you're related to by blood.

When my turn came to speak, I turned to the room, took a deep breath, and this is what I said:

"I was deeply honored when Pelka asked me to give her away and to service as her Gentleman of Honour. I was also deeply relieved that she did not require me to wear chiffon. Or for that matter, to hold her bouquet during the ceremony.

We've been best friends for 20 years, and we've made our friendship last even across the Atlantic. I've heard that the groom has been known to ask, "What DO you talk about for three hours at a time?" For the last six months, I can tell you, it's been about the wedding...

Some have said that, as we move into adulthood, we create families of our own choosing, and I suppose that Pelka and I were the first members of each other's family of choice.

As such, I have always been concerned that she marry the right man — one she can really be happy with. My role over the years has been that of "monster-in-law-to-be." To sort of put the fear of God into any prospective mate.

Yet I have to say, that with David, I never felt the need to do so. And when I asked Pelka fairly early on in their relationship if this was someone she would marry, I was surprised when she answered, without hesitation, "Yes, I would."

So I think we've seen a good thing here today. But Pelka, I want you to know, that monster-in-law is always here for you. And David, welcome to the family."

After the speeches were done, David turned to me and said, "Now that Pelka and I are married, we're family now!" I leaned back and replied, "Just call me MaMa."

It was, indeed, the gayest of weddings. ▼

peeping with tom

By Tom Moilanen

Ye ouch!

That was a squeal of pain brought on by the sensation of rawhide on my butt cheeks as I ease myself back into the old saddle. Remember me? I'm the dude who used to write movie reviews. The last three months, however, have kept me tied up (as it were) with interviews and what-not, which has been a complete hoot. But I guess there comes a time when duty does more than just call — it yells, screams, hollers, and cajoles. As Mother Dilldine would say, "this is just another skid mark on the underwear of life."

There is so much new stuff in the world of gay porn these days that you'd think I'd be in a critic's heaven. Not so. It merely creates more work in that not only do I have to watch the darn things, but I have to pick which ones to review. (Take a queer shopping and you'll know what I mean.) This can be ecstasy or drudgery, depending on a variety of factors.

COBRA VIDEO'S
BRETT EVERETT

Remember that this is a subjective venture. I'm going to hate stuff that some people love, and vice-versa (emphasis on the "vice" part). In fact, I'll deliberately choose movies I can't stand simply so I can rip 'em to shreds, based on the theory that it's easier to be funny when you're not praising something. Whether I'm funny, of course, is also subjective, relying solely on how smart you are. One caveat: I take no responsibility for CCSD staff, faculty, or alumni.

You know how I used to piss and moan that we need an American version of Bel Ami Studios, the hot shots from Slovakia that I'm always drooling over? I may have found it in Cobra Video, a small-time production company based in Wilkes-Barre, Pennsylvania, that has recently cranked out some excellent material. From Austin's Beach Buddies to Every Pool Boy's Dream to Schoolboy Crush, the mastermind behind Cobra — Bryan Phillips — has done it once again with a flick called Bareboned Twinks, another fun-filled romp featuring a stable of smooth, nubile youngsters. (Age bias? Hell yes!)

Let me give you the box cover blurb: "Eleven young Cobraboyz, five hot scenes (four of them bareback), Cumm eating, In ass loads, Live sound, No music." So what's the big deal, you ask? There is no story. There is no character development. There is an effort to establish some sort of set-up prior to the sex, albeit a weak one. Why, then, am I a convulsing, multi- orgasmic mess?

Phillips has great taste. He knows how to get his models to show genuine affection for one another, ala the Bel Ami boys. He shoots from all kinds of discombobulated angles. He will even slip a "star" in the mix every so often, as he does here with supertwink Brett Everett. (Brett's been around the block more times than the ice cream truck, and we're not talking soft-serve.)

I've always claimed that context is crucial to creating a good fantasy, and, in turn, that a good fantasy is what this business is all about. This flick is about as one-dimensional as the average Las Vegas, yet the heat generated by the sex itself transcends my hoity-toity notions of a linear framework. There is also a mood inherent to Cobra films that bears Phillips' distinct vision: bright, happy sets, laced with "Cobra blue" towels and underwear, frisky models, and a general implication that sex is fun (at least so they tell me).

I realize that numbers alone aren't a good argument for product endorsement, but I can't keep Cobra's movies in the store. They sell themselves, sort of like an off-duty cocktail waitress. C'mon down and see some Bareboned Twinks with your own eyes. I guarantee these pythons will bring out the snake charmer in you.

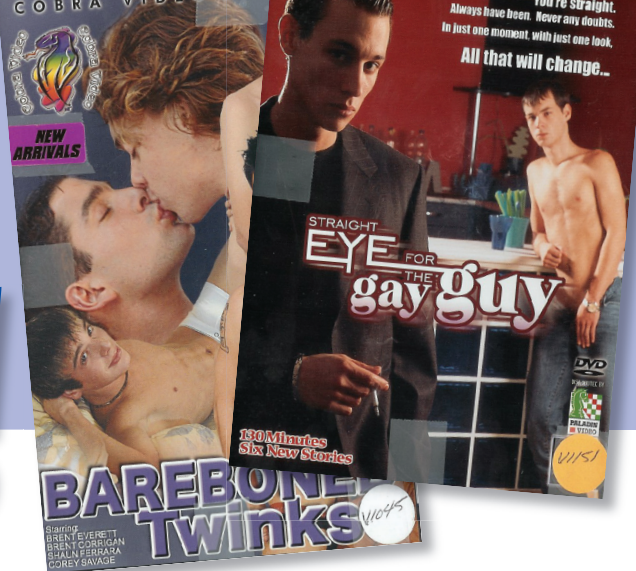

Eek. Ack. Arrgh! Nope, that isn't the spirit of Don Martin (Mad Magazine) channeling through my laptop. It's my gastric reaction after viewing Straight Eye for the Gay Guy, a forced attempt at what they call "gonzo porn." (At least they have the "gone" part right).

Gone is any authenticity, which is critical to reality-based flicks. Gone is the mental image of a straight man seduced. Gone is any hint of sexual stimuli. Gone is thirty-two bucks, which is what my distributor bilked out of me for this piece of pornographic poop.

The company is Blue Lights View, another Eastern European outfit based — this time — in Hungary. The director is some dude named Demian Dvorak. The cast is a hodge-podge of supposedly straight and gay guys, most of whom do not speak English. The idea is that they've consented to dabble in homosexual activities for the camera (and perhaps ten bucks). This does not the mustard cut, particularly when some monochromatic drone is providing voice-overs claiming, "Dis is da fuhst time I do da sex wid da man." ARRGH!

Think Arnold Schwarzenegger impersonating Nelson Mandela. Think patently canned interviews. Think "first-timers" who know their way around a penis better than... than... than an off-duty cocktail waitress. If you're going to go the reality route, you've got to either find real straight guys, or at least some fairly decent actors. Then you have to frame them in such a way as to construct a fantasy. That's work, and apparently the gang at Blue Lights View would rather dish up a blue plate special than a veal cordon bleu.

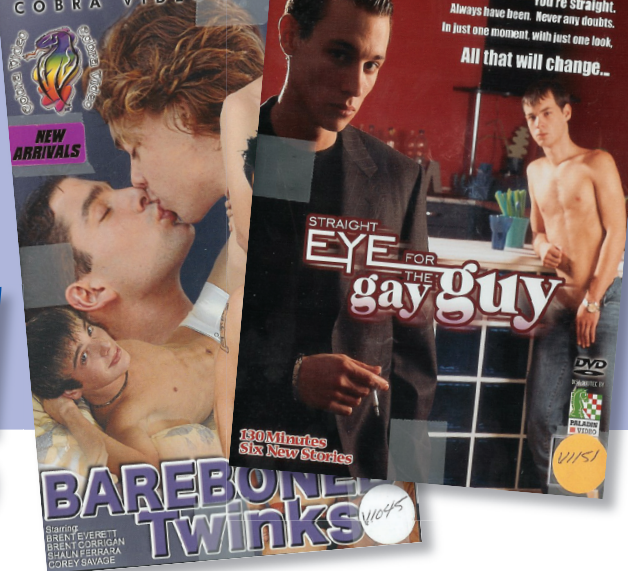

Lay off of my blue suede shoes, however. I need 'em so I can skeedaddle as far away as possible from these blue movie imposters. ▼

TROY

By Michael Derry #122 'T'S ON, B!TCH!!!

MICHAEL! DARLING! OR SHOULD I SAY, 'JESUS CHRIST, SUPER-STAR'? I MUST SAY, I REALLY WAS IMPRESSED BY YOUR PERFORMANCE TONIGHT. IT WAS REALLY BRAVE OF YOU TO ACTUALLY SING LIVE. GIVES ME A NEW APPRECIATION FOR REAL PERFORMERS LIKE THAT POOR LITTLE ASHLEY SIMPSON!

BOQUISHAI! GRAB YOUR PAD! IT'S ON!

AWWWW, CH! CH! YOU'RE STILL THE BIGGEST STAR IN THE ROOM! I MEAN HONESTLY, EVERY TIME I SEE YOU, YOU KEEP GETTING BIGGER! AND WITH THE ZONE, AND TRIMS, AND PERSONAL TRAINERS, IT MUST TAKE A HUGE COMMITMENT TO STAY THAT GROTESQUELY OVERWEIGHT! WHAT IS YOUR SECRET?

TROY

By Michael Derry #123 'TOUCHED BY AN ANGEL?'

THE 'NAKED BOYS' PARTY CONTINUES TO RAGE ON INSIDE LE CLUB, WHILE JUST OUTSIDE, TROY IS LEFT DAZED AND CONFUSED FOLLOWING HIS BRIEF ENCOUNTER WITH THE 'ANGEL'...

I DON'T GET IT! WHAT AM I SUPPOSED TO BE DOING HERE? YOU SAID WE GOT IT ALL WRONG. WHAT DID WE GET WRONG? WHY DID YOU MAKE ME FORGET? AND WHAT WAS THAT PSYCHOTIC ANGEL ALL ABOUT? GOOD IS EVIL AND EVIL IS GOOD? NONE OF THIS MAKES ANY SENSE ANYMORE! O'MON! I NEED SOME HELP! SEND ME A SIGN OR SOMETHING! ANYTHING! I'M HANGING ON BY A THREAD HERE! AND, ON TOP OF IT ALL, I AM MISSING A REALLY GREAT PARTY!!!

CUTE, CH! CH! VERY CUTE! BELIEVE ME, I HAVE BEEN EATEN BY BIGGER BITCHES THAN YOU!

I HEARD SHE EATS PORN STARS FOR BREAKFAST, BUT NEVER THOUGHT I'D SEE IT!

BESIDES, AT 11:30 P.M. IT'S WELL PAST BRUNCH, EVEN BY WEST HOLLYWOOD STANDARDS!

FAT IS THE NEW GAY!

GULP!!

I'M SO STRESSED. I'VE BEEN UP FOR TWO DAYS TRYING TO FINISH MY WEBSITE FOR MY GOVERNMENT PUBLICATIONS CLASS. IT'S DUE TOMORROW, BUT WE HAD TO BRING THE CATS TO THE VET AND TONIGHT I'M WORKING AT THE BOOKSTORE.

MR AAOOWWLL!

NO, TRUST ME, THE SCHIAVO CIRCUS AND THE TURPITUDE OF TOM DELAY WILL NOT AWAKEN THE POPULACE. AMERICANS ARE NARCOLEPTIC AMNESIACS! WITH A.D.D.!

I THINK VANESSA'S EYE SIGHT IS GOING, AND VIRGINIA'S BEEN DRINKING AND PEEING A LOT.

AT LEAST WE WON'T HAVE TO WORRY ABOUT RIGHT WING TUBES SHOWING FEEDING TUBES DOWN OUR THROATS.

IF IT'S SOMETHING SERIOUS, SYDNEY MIGHT HAVE TO STAY WITH THEM AND NOT COME WITH ME TO COMMENCEMENT.

BECAUSE SOON THEY'LL PROBABLY BE GIVING "TENURED RADICALS" THE DEATH PENALTY.

VIRGINIA AND VANESSA?

FIONA? I'LL CALL YOU LATER.

I HAFTA GO, MADELINE.

OWOW

MEANWHILE, CLARKE EXPLAINS A THING OR TWO.

LOOK, LET'S SAY I'M THE LEGISLATIVE BRANCH, MOMMY'S THE EXECUTIVE, AND YOU'RE THE JUDICIAL. THE POWER'S DIVIDED UP EQUALLY BETWEEN US.

YOU CAN RULE IT UNCONSTITUTIONAL, BUT THEN PS2 CAN GIVE MONEY TO A LOT OF SENATORS AND MOMMY CAN NOMINATE A BUNCH OF PS2 JUDGES.

THEN THE PS2 SENATORS ABOLISH THE RIGHT OF THE XBOX SENATORS TO FILIBUSTER THE PS2 NOMINEES, SO THE PS2 JUDGES GET CONFIRMED. YOUR DECISION IS REPEALED, AND THE COURTS ARE PACKED WITH PS2 PARTISANS FOR ALL ETERNITY. DO YOU FOLLOW?

I THINK SO. THE WAY TO GET A NEW GAME SYSTEM IS TO GAME THE SYSTEM.

GOOD LORD. HE'S A GAMER SAVANT.

THE EVIDENCE SPEAKS FOR ITSELF. ON A FACULTY OF 250, THERE ARE ONLY 15 OPENLY REPUBLICAN PROFESSORS.

WHAT ARE YOU PROPOSING? IDEOLOGICAL DIVERSITY THROUGH AFFIRMATIVE ACTION? THAT'S REAL CONSERVATIVE.

I'M PROPOSING THAT IMPRESSIONABLE STUDENTS HEAR ALL SIDES OF THE ISSUES. DOES THAT THREATEN YOU?

IF ALL SIDES INCLUDES CREATIONISM AND HOLOCAUST DENIAL AND THE NOVELS OF AYN RAND, THEN YEAH, I GUESS IT DOES.

4:22 PM. PROFESSOR GINGER JORDAN MOOS ONE OF MY INTELLECTUAL HEROINES.

?! I'LL JUST POST THIS LITTLE INCIDENT TO THE ACADEMIC FREEDOM COMPLAINT CENTER.

CANTHIA, IF YOU REALLY WANT MORE REPUBLICANS ON THE FACULTY, TRY GETTING OUR SALARIES QUADRUPLED.

MEANWHILE, IN THE CEREAL AISLE...

FOZZY FOO BAAAAPS!

SWEETIE, YOU DON'T REALLY WANT THOSE. YOU JUST THINK YOU DO BECAUSE A COMMERCIAL TOLD YOU TO.

THAT WAS PERSUASIVE. YOU SHOULD GO INTO MARKETING.

OH, HI, MO. IT'S AMAZING. SHE HAS A VOCABULARY OF 50 WORDS, AND THREE OF THEM ARE "FROSTED FRUIT BATS."

AAAIEEE

J.R.! LOOK! HOW 'BOUT A NICE STRING BEAN?

NO!

HEY, I HEARD YOU'RE GRADUATING FROM LIBRARY SCHOOL. NEXT WEEK, CONGRATS!

THANKS. IT'S REALLY EXCITING. BUT I'M BUMMED SYDNEY WON'T BE ABLE TO COME WITH ME. ONE OF OUR CATS IS SICK.

CAN'T LOIS CATSIT?

NO, IT'S KIND OF A DICEY OPERATION. WE HAVE TO GIVE HER INSULIN INJECTIONS TWICE A DAY.

FOO BAAAAPS.

AFAN AIDS WALK

Aid for AIDS of Nevada's (AFAN) recent AIDS Walk attracted roughly 5,000 people and raised over $225,000 to benefit those living with HIV/AIDS in Southern Nevada.

Founded in 1984, Aid for AIDS of Nevada (AFAN) is the oldest and largest AIDS service organization in the state of Nevada. AFAN is dedicated to providing support and advocacy for the nearly 2,000 registered men, women and children of Southern Nevada infected with HIV/AIDS.

NEVADA GAY RODEO ASSOCIATION

The Nevada Gay Rodeo Association (NGRA) is an all-volunteer, non-profit organization dedicated to preserving the western lifestyle and producing gay rodeos with a commitment to raise funds for charitable organizations within our community. Over the years, NGRA has raised many thousands of dollars for local charities.

This year's successful BigHorn Rodeo was held April 22-24 at Horseman's Park and various party spots around Vegas. Attendees came from across the country representing other organizations within the International Gay Rodeo Association.

"We appreciate the support of the community. It's good to be back supporting the community again," said Jeffrey Neal, Rodeo Director.

Racking it Up

The Rack relocates, expands to offer more exciting shopping experience

Michael, owner of The Rack, has recently relocated his expanded store on new premises at 953 East Sahara Ste. B15 (closer to Badlands). We recommend a visit to the store where you will see how the extra space has created a much improved shopping experience.

Michael has some interesting new additions planned for the store. There's going to be a leather workshop, custom fetish wear, leather manufacturing and alterations, and expanded merchandise options. The new store is a must see. The staff is friendly and love visitors, especially if you're cute. There is no pressure to buy, they just want you to know they are there to serve your needs. ▼

marrs attacks

By Homer Marrs

Bjondblief

I have been on Gay.com for three weeks now. I am so completely over it.

My first attempts at dating my own sex were six years ago, in Boston, through the newspaper. At the time I had been interning for a hip weekly that ran personals, and before long I started responding to them. I ended up dating one kind soul for about six weeks and stalking another until it scared him away from me and me away from myself. I imagine today he either has a great story to tell at parties or lives a traceless life in South America under three different names. The punch line is I can't remember his.

After that I forbade myself from meeting men in any form but face-to-face. I figured I was safer that way. I didn't have to imagine what I was looking for in Mr. Right when I could just sense it from Mr. Right in Front of Me. It gave me wonderful license to lie to myself: "seeking smart, attractive, and kind with a feel for danger" looks great in print but gets you nowhere when your heart wants "fat, broke, bald, armed and angry." Honesty seems to like the third dimension more than it does a user profile.

Well, 3-D ain't all it's cracked up to be, either. Not when you're a 'mo. The bars get old — fast — and when you realize you're becoming an alcoholic one FreeZone Boyznight at a time, you seek non-wasted methods of meeting others who might also want more than a hangover. Enter Gay.com.

The screen name I chose is Bjondblief. This is pronounced "beyond belief" and is meant to say 1) I dig Scandinavians, and 2) the letters b and j can indeed coexist without alluding to oral sex. It's the name I used on AOL as a kid before getting my whole family kicked off for writing the following comment in my profile: "I am an AOL staff member and I want your password." (Remember: an AOL staff member will never ask for your password.)

I had high hopes for my first chat session. Without the thumping of club music and nightlong beer bust beer, I was sure to meet my soul mate: the Edina to my Patsy, the He-Man to my Orko, the Antichrist to my False Prophet. Or maybe just a cutie. Armed with a winning photo and a type speed of 80wpm, I entered U.S. Men: Pacific: Nevada: Las Vegas 2 (since 1 was full).

And, lo! The IMs followed. SuckyMcDickSuck, NiceBiBoiToi, VirilityDrugLoveBug — all wanted to say hi. I hadn't felt so popular since the time I accidentally walked into Spotlight Lounge. I found myself chatting with dudes I could dig a lot faster than I thought, and warding off the creeps with "Thanks for the IM, but I'm actually talking to a friend right now," more frequently than I'd anticipated. Things were going well.

So well that I gave my e-mail and phone number to a few guys I wanted to meet IRL. One turned out to be bogus — surprise, surprise — but two turned out to be honest, sweet guys I genuinely wanted to see again, who genuinely wanted to see me again, too. The problem was I wouldn't let them. I now understand why.

After much introspection, I have reached the conclusion that I view anyone truly capable of comprehending and appreciating me as a total threat. Any man who meets the meticulous qualities I tell myself I want in a long-term boyfriend is immediately avoided. Personal history dictates I would rather pine over a mediocre-looking halfwit than open myself up to someone who might actually make me happy. Because happiness is bliss, and I fear bliss may be ignorance.

I fear it beyond belief. ▼

Taurus

(April 20-May 20)

Spring fever is all over & though it's lovely, there's much work to be done. Don't make major investments after May 19th. The 28th looks best for planning that long hoped for getaway. June begins kind of bumpy but smooths out by the 9th. Physical energies dip on the 12th.

Gemini

(May 21-June 21)

You'll be very psyched up as the Sun enters your sign on the 20th. Having so many irons in the fire is always stimulating for Geminis. Gathering with friends on the 30th proves fun & fruitful. You begin June at a sprinter's pace and won't really slow down before the 10th. Enjoy it!

Cancer

(June 22-July 22)

It seems that challenges will lurk at every turn for the next month. It'll be frustrating because the sweet rewards won't come until late in the month. A career setback from April reverses itself in late May. New Moon on June 8th triggers a wonderfully productive & joyful week.

Leo

(July 23-August 22)

An incredibly strong start and an equally exciting finish mark the next thirty days. It's what comes in between that's liable to have you frustrated. Resist the urge to speak your mind on May 27. Car related expenses on June 6th make you go ballistic. That money is regrouped by the 14th.

Virgo

(August 23-September 22)

Financial aspects are very much in your favor during the latter half of May. It'll seem as if you can't lose. But, we know that can be a foolish way to think Virgo. Stick with pre set plans. June begins with you working like a beaver, almost non stop. Get away on the 11th & 12th.

Libra

(September 23-October 22)

You're closing in on the lap of luxury, in the meantime you just need to sit cozy in someone else's lap. May 23-29 finds you busy as a bee and loving every minute of it. A new friend made in early June proves to be a keeper. New Moon on the 8th sends you on the prowl.

Scorpio

(October 23-November 21)

You get to tie up quite a few loose ends between May 15 & 20. A new career door beckons you on the 27th & should be carefully considered. Minor clashes in early June only strengthen your resolve. A special bonding on the 11th will last for a lifetime-plus!

Sagittarius

(November 22-December 21)

Contrary to popular belief, good guys do finish 1st quite often. Which means you have a bounty of wondrous events waiting. Don't let moody people spoil it for you on May 25 & 26. Incredibly strong financial vibe wraps itself around you June 7-10.

Capricorn

(December 22-January 19)

Your recognition factor continues to climb during late May. People value integrity & know you mean business. One last employee change on the 31st perfects the workplace. It's best to stick close to home on June 5 & 6. Financial tip on the 13th proves a winner.

Aquarius

(January 20-February 18)

This proves to be an active month, but it'll start out at a snail's pace. Real estate deals are yours for the taking throughout late May. That money train heads closer to you as the New Moon hits on June 8. A love interest divulges a sweet secret around June 13.

Pisces

(February 19-March 19)

It's pretty much business as usual, especially from May 20-27. That whirlwind of parties will help take your mind off things. Long repressed heart ache surfaces in early June and should be faced. You'll have a bit more spending money after the 6th. Have some fun with it.

Aries

(March 20-April 19)

Hard work brings about results, but quite often relying on pure faith can move mountains. Try combining the two. Job conditions improve after May 22. May ends on a most joyful note. June begins smoothly & pretty much stays that way. Look to the 11th for a surprise visitor.
