The Search Has Started for Mr. Gay 2006

Global contestants converge on Palm Springs this October to Battle for the Crown

Mr. Gay USA 2006 is out there somewhere. And when he is selected to represent the USA, he will be competing against "Mr. Gay" winners from Germany, Norway, Hungary, Denmark, Sweden, Italy and Switzerland for the overall title of Mr. Gay International. The Competition happens in Palm Springs, California, October 7–9, 2005 (Columbus Day weekend).

"Mr. Gay" winners from around the nation will compete for the national title of Mr. Gay U.S. in Palm Springs. The same weekend, our national representative will go against contestants from around the globe as the desert heats up to capture the overall, worldwide title of Mr. Gay 2006.

A highly competitive bidding process, led event organizers to award the inaugural competition to The City of Palm Springs, California. Said Mayor Ron Oden, "We could not be happier to host an event that directs the world's eyes on the inclusiveness and beauty of our fine city." The Riviera Resort was also named as host hotel for the event and as the venue for the Mr. Gay 2006 Competition.

"The International Competition for Mr. Gay 2006 marks the first time that a staged-based network of competitions has been produced to find that special gay 'boy next door' to represent the broader gay community," said Producer Don Spradlin. "Gay subcultures such as the leather, drag and bear communities have had major pageants and contests for years. The USA's "Mr. Everyman" will be a spokesman selected specifically to raise the visibility of gay men, humanize gays in the media, create a positive role model and confront homophobia in today's culture."

Both the national and the international competitions will follow an elimination round format, similar to reality TV shows. This is designed to showcase men who are team players with strong personality traits as well as good looks. "The competitive elements designed into the Finals will allow judges to observe the character values and leadership talents of our contestants," explains Spradlin. "Judges will be looking at each contestant's qualities from an overall standpoint."

On Columbus Day Weekend, all the finalists will gather in Palm Springs at the Riviera Resort. Over a period of three days, the men will go head-to-head in grueling off-stage events such as firemen's training, rock climbing, and more. Internationally known photographer Tom Bianchi, will capture the contestants on their quest for glory. These images will be edited and shown for the judges and audience during the staged finals on Saturday evening, October 8, 2005.

When all the votes are tabulated, Mr. Gay 2006 will be crowned and awarded a Grand Prize package valued at more than ten thousand dollars. He will also begin his duties as the gay community's goodwill ambassador, working to promote positive awareness worldwide.

For additional information, individual entry forms, special host hotel rates, photos of the international competitors, City Contest schedules and last-minute Competition updates, visit www.MrGayCompetition.com

The company producing this national network of competitions is Community Promotions, a California LLC owned and operated by Managing Partners Don Spradlin and Thomas Roth. Both have extensive and respected experience in managing and producing events for the gay community. They plan to provide a professional and wholesome series of contests and grow the network over the years to include many more city and state contests. ▼

Fair Tax? Gaily Forward!

We live in a country filled with village idiots who want to teach “Intelligent Design” in the public schools, instead of in the Sunday Schools where it belongs. Meanwhile, the rest of the town yokels are proclaiming that gay marriage — rather than the 50% divorce rate — is destroying marriage. Forget “Hello, Dolly!” The latest rage here is “Hello, Christian Taliban!” In a time of scary oddities like these (none of which, I submit, are still quite as scary as the ever popular Ice Capades), it’s nice to find something that I can get behind with my so-called “conservative” brethren. Specifically, I mean the Fair Tax.

month every household would get a prebate check from the government refunding what that household would be expected to spend on the basic necessities.

Sounds simple, right? No more IRS, no more filing federal tax returns (the capital gains tax would disappear as well), and no more legal tax evasion of the sort that the wealthiest among us are famous for.

The book, The FairTax Book, explains the plan in more convincing detail. It was penned by conservative (some would say right wing, I would say gay-unfriendly) Republican Georgia Congressman John simply coupled in the head-up-the-patootie “I need an anti-gay amendment to protect my straight marriage” states.

Here’s how: One of the benefits of marriage is that it confers upon a couple all kinds of federal rights, many involving taxes and benefits that are unavailable to unmarried couples. In fact, thanks to the federal Defense of Marriage Act (DOMA — remember? Rhymes with “coma”?), even in states like Massachusetts where marriage for gay folks is legal, those married couples can’t get the federal benefits of their marriage. Many companies are now offering benefits (like health insurance) to the same-sex partners of their employees, along with the children in their household. But the difference is that married people can get the benefits paid out of their pre-tax income, while gay couples don’t. In other words, you don’t get the same benefit (even though your company is giving it to you) because you pay taxes on the money that you’re paying for the insurance with. So it costs you more than your legally married co-worker.

But if you take out the federal income tax, you take out the difference. We all then get the same benefits and we all pay the same amount for them. There’s no more extra taxation on gay folks. And we all — straight and gay alike — get to keep our entire paychecks.

I really like the idea that a concept backed by the John Linders of the world is one that will level the playing field in at least one way between gay folks in committed relationships (along with their children) and straight married people.

I really, really like it when perhaps-unintended consequences work to our benefit.

I really, really like it that even our friends who are Democratic can now call their red-state congresspersons and senators and ask them to support something that we can all agree upon.

And I just love it that the Fair Tax is actually fair. ▼

In case you haven’t heard about the Fair Tax proposal, or seen the number one non-fiction best selling book about it on the New York Times best seller list, the Fair Tax is a proposal to abolish the Internal revenue Services and replace all federal payroll taxes — from income tax to social security and Medicare tax — with a consumption tax on only retail goods and services. In other words, you get the full amount of your paycheck (less any state income tax, if your state has one), and you pay a 20% tax embedded into the price for retail (not re-sale, but retail) goods and services. To prevent people from paying tax on the basic necessities, every Linder and libertarian syndicated talk radio host Neal Boortz, and the idea seems to be gaining buzz among the Republicans who control both houses of Congress.

And what possible relation might this have to the issues I chiefly write about — namely, gay issues? Let me tell you. And it’s wonderfully, unintentionally subversive.

How might the Fair Tax benefit gay families? By gay families, I don’t just mean single and coupled gay folks with children. I mean gay couples, whether legally married in Massachusetts, or domestic-partnered in those slightly-less-courageous-than-Massachusetts states, or those who are

Good vs. Just Plain Awful

There are some things that should never be. I'm not referring to bureaucrats, politicians, or Martin Sheen, although they certainly qualify. I'm referring to a production company called Stud Mall, the brick-and-mortar version of www.studmall.com.

For the first time after eighty-some odd columns (most of which are very odd), I'm going to skip the literary relish tray and head directly to the meat and potatoes. I have just witnessed human behavior that is so nauseatingly rotten that I need every bit of space I can to expound.

Stud Mall calls their movie Barebackin' Boyfriends #3. (Good God, there are two others?) It features a couple of ape-like creatures known as Tony and Steve. They're virtually interchangeable in a simian sort of way, but if I wanted to watch orangutans monkey around with their bananas I'd go to the friggin' zoo. I almost called the paramedics after viewing this vile piece of digital degradation due to severe stomach cramps, brutal diverticulitis, and temporary blindness. My only wish is that I was blind before I popped it in.

I'm so distraught I don't know where to start. I guess the "models" are as good a place as any (primarily because I just mentioned them), although I must question the use of the word itself. Generally a model is an ideal — something against which we measure other things. They set the standard. They are the example.

Tony and Steve are examples of people so hideous that the mere suggestion they have sex with anyone under any circumstances should be punishable by public stoning.

Both appear to be in his forties. Tony sports a Mohawk. Steve is bald with a gray goatee (emphasis on the "goat" part). Both are heavily tattooed, which seems kind of pointless given they sport enough body hair to be eligible for protection by PETA. They are also pierced in unspeakable places.

Maybe it's their sloped foreheads and guttural grunts, but I have a difficult time distinguishing between these guys and the Detroit Pistons. I was under the impression that bestiality was a federal crime, but apparently some curator in New York named J. Hale actually has documentation legitimizing these guys, presumably pilfered from the Audubon Society.

The production values are limited, as the flick contains one painfully long scene shot on a bare mattress (bear rug?). I would normally bitch to high heaven about single camera angles, but in this not referring to that kind of positive). They add a ton of trailers (not the type these guys probably live in), and lengthy ones at that. Their content, however, is scarier than a Democrat with unlimited access to the public trough. In fact, "trough" might be a most appropriate word, as one of them features two guys peeing all over themselves and each other. If that's your idea of a good time, please don't call me. Get a hold of a very good psychiatrist. You might also want to consider a neurosurgeon.

Have you ever known the pleasure of a shower after three or four days of intense physical labor? That's what I feel like after catching XL Files #3 from Bel Ami Studios following the Stud Mall fiasco.

Generally I avoid quick clips like this, but I needed to see a wrinkle-free face and hairless butt before I went into seizures. (I go into seizures all the time. Elton John plays there.)

The box cover brags: "20 more of the biggest dicks from Bel Ami's Casting Couch." This is not a movie, per se. It has no sex scenes, just short snippets of long penises and the boys to whom they are attached. Director Marty Stevens does a fast interview with each of them. Then they disrobe and proceed to spank the monkey (which should've been done to Tony and Steve).

None of these guys are notable, at least not yet. Producer George DuRoy uses this footage as a source from which to cull models for his full-length films, which for years have led the industry in terms of quality, budget, eroticism, and aesthetics. Once he latches on to a new model he promotes the dude like crazy. Think Lucas Ridgeston. Think Johan Paulik. Think handsome young guys that possess classic Eastern European features and who continue in the field as cameramen and production assistants well after his on-screen days are over.

This is the seed from which great porn grows. It's much preferable to the seedy characters you'll find in the pet shop at the Stud Mall. ▼ case they'd have been a blessing. We see way too much of the action between these two (which I'll get to all too soon), and the one thing I normally praise — a lack of background music — in this case only highlights the lowlights. And speaking of lights: a black screen would've been preferable, but unfortunately someone must have found a bulb lying around the set and had the nerve to use it.

So about that action: they kiss, fondle, paw, slap, maul, lick, taste, and snort. They suck. They screw. Tony slathers lube all over his butt, which in itself is fine. What is not fine is that Steve licks it off. The penetration is bareback, of course, and the only saving grace is that perhaps they'll pass on an STD that prevents either from doing any future movies.

There is one element to Stud Mall's flicks that could be considered positive (and I'm marrs attacks

By Homer Marrs

Dear John,

I'm sorry this letter is two years late.

I was surfing the Web the other day to pass the time — feeling pretty good, and for no apparent reason. Opening my inbox, I saw an automated message from Friendster.com which, bucking habit, I read. Of course it was stupid — someone I barely spoke to anymore had updated his blog — but I felt like following the link anyway. I'd always thought that site was cute.

Visiting Friendster widened my smile. Icons of cupcakes to remind me of birthdays, bright little emoticons beneath snapshots of people I loved, and official tallies of how many "friends" and "friend requests" I had gave me a sense of warmth, popularity, success. And then I scrolled down to your photo.

My first feeling was surprise: the awe at how quickly a mood could change. I was honestly shocked that I could go from happy nostalgia to angry humiliation in less than the click of a mouse. Or maybe the plummet really did precede the awareness. I don't know. They say when you burn your hand on an iron you actually jerk it away before you know that you've been hurt.

You're not wondering what you did to make me feel this way, John. You told me to get lost. You said, in your wordless cowardice, to stay away, to take a hike, to hide in the drunken corner shadow of the bar from which I came. You even tried to be my friend when everything was done, because you wanted to be good. You did almost nothing wrong, and I hated you for that.

The night you made your decision is a memory I cherish horribly. I guess it was our fourth date. I had met you and your friends for drinks after I got done with a show, which I and my castmates had performed drunk. That was clear when we rendezvoused, but you had no problem with that. You and your friends were the drinking kind — you undoubtedly still are — and I was terribly jealous of the frat-boy bond you pathetic enablers shared. I had no gay friends of my own, because I was damaged goods in furious search of a beau expected to fix me. Any man who wasn't that magician was immediately dismissed.

Compounded with this jealousy was my desire to sleep with you and a handful of your group. In my mind you guys traded off casually as they do in dirty films; in my mind those films were directed by you and produced to hurt me. But I digress.

The night unfurled with my becoming moonstruck, loud and obnoxious. Your crew grew quickly irritated and whispered to you warnings between their numb banter of predictable jokes and gossip, the staple of your conversations. Even in my delirium I knew you were not smart, but "smart" was another word to me then. "Smart" was Napoleon's death in 1821; "smart" was non-Euclidean geometry; "smart" was something you read in a book and had to remember for a test that you had to pass so you could say you were "smart." It was not an ability to recognize a bad match; it was never a sense to stay sober.

In spite of my being me, you took me home for unbridled sex. We were more physically in sync than I'd been with anyone before, John, and that arrested me. So much so that the night of our first date, weeks prior, I had lied awake after making love to you, too euphoric to sleep, my conscious state more pleasant than any dream. Your naked, resting body was a radiance that even now makes me digress.

And the next morning it was obvious you didn't want me around. You woke me when it was time to leave for work with the formality of a hotel service: polite but fully impersonal. Our fourth date was a meeting adjourned; the minutes would be sent to my inbox shortly. I would get the memo, and I would stare at it for months.

John, the demon who entered my body in those initial parting hours was not your fault. Nor was it your fault that he stayed in me for the better part of a year. I was sick. I could have made him leave, but he kept me at the center of the universe, and the torment there was beautiful.

Less beautiful, only, than the resolve I've reached in time, the resolve that waited for me patiently like an unopened message from Friendster, one I just couldn't delete, a message I finally read, that said, "Love yourself, idiot. It's time to get up."

out at night

Be Out. Be Seen. Be Fabulous.

A full-body photograph of a muscular man standing in a shower. He is shirtless, wearing black Speedo briefs, and has his arms raised with his hands behind his head. Water is running down his chest and torso. The background consists of light blue square tiles.

BLUE IS...

Reverse tuck with 3½ somersaults. 3.2 degree of difficulty. The victory shower.

DRAGAPELLA! The hit Off-Broadway show starring The Kinsey Sicks returns to the Las Vegas Hilton Dragapella!, the hit Off-Broadway show starring The Kinsey Sicks will return to Las Vegas for one show only, Sunday, Sept. 18 in the Shimmer Cabaret at the Las Vegas Hilton. This return showcase was prompted both by fan requests and media interest in the popular show.

The Kinsey Sicks combine award-winning acappella singing, biting wit and over-the-top drag for what has been called "one of the more uniquely original (and thoroughly fun and entertaining) acts we have encountered in years" (Billboard Magazine) and have been praised for their "voices sweet as bird-song" (New York Times).

Their Off-Broadway show, Dragapella! at the legendary Studio 54 in New York City, was called "riotously funny" and "sublime" (Variety), and earned them a Drama Desk

Award nomination for Best Lyrics and two Lucille Lortel nominations, including for Best Musical of 2001.

The Kinsey Sicks have been profiled on national television in the US, Canada, Europe and Japan, including ABC, CBS and the CBC. They were featured in the New York Times and recognized by the Hollywood Reporter as a breakout hit at the 2002 Montreal Comedy Festival. They have recorded four CDs: Dragapella, Boyz 2 Girlz, Sicks in the City, and I Want To Be A Republican.

Dragapella! is presented one night only, Sunday, September 18 at 10:00 p.m. in Shimmer Cabaret. Tickets are $30 (plus tax and service charge) and can be purchased at the Las Vegas Hilton box office or by visiting www.lvhlilton.com or calling 702-732-5755 or 1-800-222-5361. ▼

KRAVE CELEBRATES ANNIVERSARY

KRAVE Nightclub, the first and only alternative club on the Strip that took Vegas by storm celebrates its one year anniversary by taking the party to LA's Sunset Strip on Friday, Sept. 30, 2005, then heading back to Sin City on Saturday, Oct. 1 to keep the party rocking, Vegas style.

Nightclub impresario Sia Amiri takes the award-winning KRAVE experience to LA for a special celebration at The Key Club (9039 Sunset Blvd.) beginning at 10 p.m. on Friday. KRAVE-LA, hosted by the sexy Karshner "Cingular" triplets, will feature all the electrified excitement that has made it the most talked about club ever to hit the Vegas Strip and earned KRAVE a global reputation.

"We are bringing in our own dancers, Vegas specialty acts and club team to make sure that we provide our LA patrons with the same entertainment and attention that they so enjoy in Vegas," said Bill Huggins, KRAVE Club director. "This also includes KRAVE Las Vegas' House DJ Talla spinning live in LA, along with an opening set by upcoming young new DJ Morningstar."

When Sia Amiri opened KRAVE Nightclub one year ago, it was the first and only alternative nightclub of its kind on the Las Vegas Strip. And, at a time when the gay and lesbian traveler represents a 54 billion dollar market, "What better way to celebrate the energy and excitement that KRAVE has become known for then to extend the celebration to the famed Sunset Strip?" exclaimed Amiri.

Just like in Las Vegas, VIP table and bottle service will be available at KRAVE-LA by reservation.

And after the sun rises over Sunset, the KRAVE's One Year Celebration will continue the next night, October 1st, back at KRAVE Las Vegas, the venue where it all began, on the Vegas Strip, climaxing with an unforgettable all-star anniversary blow-out.

KRAVE Las Vegas is the home to two Vegas shows, Men of Russia, an all male review and the world renowned Fashionistas, written, directed and produced by adult erotic film maker John Stagliano. In addition, nightly promotions at KRAVE Las Vegas include everything from a gay Latino night (Planeta Macho) to Reggaeton, Electroklash and remixed 80's events. KRAVE's signature gay event, Everything You Desire, takes place every Saturday night and regularly hosts more than 1,000 guests.

TROY By Michael Derry #130 'BOOM BOOM LOVES MANCOW'

OK BOYS, I DID SOME DIGGING AND I FOUND SOME SURPRISING THINGS ABOUT MILITARY STUDS.COM AND THIS 'SEE THE LIGHT' ORGANIZATION. SEEMS 'BROTHER JEFF', THE GUY WHO RUNS SEE THE LIGHT, IS ALSO THE GUY ON THE MILITARY STUDS HOMEPAGE.

BROTHER JEFF, OR 'BOOM-BOOM' AS HE IS KNOWN TO SOME IN-THE-KNOW DC FAGS, USED TO WORK FOR SENATOR DICK SANTATION. THE GUY WHO SAID WE NEED THE FEDERAL MARRIAGE AMENDMENT SO MEN DON'T GO OFF AND START MARRIAGE COWS, AND IS NOW THE HEAD OF THE DEPARTMENT OF FAITH BASED INITIATIVES. WELL, 'MANCOW' HAD TO FIRE POOR, LITTLE BOOM-BOOM FOR BEING CAUGHT IN A 'COMPROMISING POSITION' AT A DC LEATHER BAR. SO BOOM-BOOM CAME OUT TO CALIFORNIA AND STARTED SEE THE LIGHT TO HELP OTHER LITTLE, LOST, FAGS FIND THE LORD...

...AND NOW, MANCOW IS MAKING SURE HIS BITCH IS WELL KEPT BY FUNNELING MONEY TO HIM THROUGH THE FAITH BASED INITIATIVES PROGRAM. INCIDENTALLY, OTHER 'BROTHERS' CAN GO ONLINE, CHECK OUT THE 'SOLDIERS' ON THE SECRET WEBCAMS, AND REQUEST SPECIFIC SOLDIERS TO COME OUT TO THE 'FIELD OF BATTLE' AND GIVE THEM 'COMFORT' IN TIMES OF NEED! SO, TO REVIEW, THE FEDERAL GOVERNMENT IS NOW RUNNING A GAY PORN/PROSTITUTION RING!

WOW, RAH! THIS IS ALL, LIKE, REALLY BIG! HOW'D YOU FIND ALL THIS OUT?

COME NOW, NICK, YOU DON'T ACTUALLY EXPECT ME TO REVEAL MY SOURCES, DO YOU?

SNICKER! SNICKER! HE HE HE HE HE! CHUCKLE! SNORT!

HE'S REALLY LOVING THIS, ISN'T HE? OH, YOU HAVE NO IDEA!

AAAAHHH HAI HAI HAI HAI HAI HAI

TROY By Michael Derry #131 'A PATRIOT ACT'

TRISH? WHAT THE...? I HAVEN'T SEEN YOU SINCE...

...FROM NIGHT SEVEN YEARS AGO. HELLO NICHOLAS. I DON'T HAVE MUCH TIME SO I'M GOING TO HAVE TO MAKE THIS SHORT...

THE DANCE WAS NICE AND YOU WERE GREAT BUT THE SEX AFTERWARD... WELL... LET'S JUST SAY I'D BEEN ON THE FENCE FOR A WHILE AND YOU HELPED ME REALIZE WHAT I DIDN'T WANT. YOU DID, HOWEVER, GIVE ME SOMETHING I DIDN'T REALIZE I DID WANT.

NICHOLAS, MEET YOUR DAUGHTER HALLE! MY SOUTHERN, BAPTIST MOTHER COULDN'T DEAL WITH MY BEING GAY AND PREGNANT, SO I RAN OFF TO CHICAGO WITH MY GIRLFRIEND, TRACI. IT WAS GREAT FOR A FEW YEARS UNTIL TRACI GOT THE ITCH AND RAN OFF WITH A PROCTOLOGIST!

SO THERE WE WERE, BROKE AND ALONE, WHICH BRINGS US TO THAT NIGHT I SPENT WITH THE LESBIAN DRILL SERGEANT. SHE GUARANTEED I WOULDN'T SEE ANY FIGHTING! BUT THE DAY AFTER I SIGNED ON THAT DOTTED LINE...

I REPORT FOR DUTY IN SAN DIEGO, AND AM BEING SHIPPED OFF TO IRAQ. SO I KNOW THIS IS ALL VERY SUDDEN AND UNEXPECTED... BELIEVE ME! BUT HEVI! THAT'S JUST THE WAY LIFE IS SOMETIMES.

SO, MY BEAUTIFUL BABIES, TAKE CARE OF EACH AND LOVE EACH OTHER UNTIL I COME HOME. WHICH WILL BE SOON! PROMISE! I LOVE YOU BOTH!

YOU? UH... YOU WANT SOME CHEESE DOODLES?

WHY ARE YOUR BOOBS BIGGER THAN MAMMYS?

OH! THE TURBID, OIL-SLICKED TIDE OF AMERICAN PUBLIC OPINION BEGINS TO TURN AGAINST THE WAR, OUR FRIENDS ARE CAUGHT IN THE UNDERTOW OF THEIR OWN PERSONAL AFFAIRS.

SYDNEY, YOU TOOK MY "PLEASURE AND DANGER" TWO SEMESTERS AGO AND I NEED IT BACK!

UH... I'LL TAKE A LOOK, BUT I DON'T THINK I HAVE IT. HEY, DO YOU WANT TO ROOM TOGETHER AT THE MLA CONVENTION AGAIN THIS YEAR?

IF I GO, I'M GETTING MY OWN ROOM, THANK YOU VERY MUCH.

WHY?

YOU KNOW WHY, YOUR LITTLE TRYST. I WAS OKAY KEEPING YOUR SECRET FROM MO WHILE IT WAS JUST A ONE NIGHT STAND, BUT YOU'VE BEEN IN CONSTANT COMMUNICATION WITH MADELINE! YOU'RE PROBABLY ENAMORING HER RIGHT NOW!

UH...

I HAVE TO GO, JUST RETURN MY BOOK, OKAY?

TRAITOR!

YOU'RE THE TRAITOR, TROGLODYKE.

AND NEAR-A MOTLEY CLOT OF BIG-BOX SHOPS...

MO? UH... YOU'RE THE LAST PERSON I'D EXPECT TO SEE IN THIS PLACE.

HI, TONI! I HAVE A JOB INTERVIEW AT THE LIBRARY BRANCH OUT HERE. PLUS I'M ADDICTED TO THESE FRICKIN' CHAI LATTES.

UM... WHAT DO THEY PUT IN THEM? SOYLENT GREEN P?

OOOPS.

TONI, THANK GOD YOU CAME. LISTEN, WE HAVE TO THINK FAST: ANA KNOWS.

HEY, GLORIA.

MO?!

UH... YOU MEAN ANA KNOWS ABOUT THE SURPRISE PARTY WE'RE PLANNING?

YES! EXACTLY!

OH.

A PARTY! HOW COME YOU DIDN'T INVITE ME?

DRIVETIME DRIVE-BY #173

© 2005 BY ALISON BECHDEL

HEY, LEMME ASK YOU A QUESTION. SAY YOU'RE FRIENDS WITH BOTH PEOPLE IN A COUPLE, AND YOU KNOW ONE OF THEM'S CARRYING ON WITH SOMEONE ELSE. WHAT WOULD YOU DO?

GOD, GINGER. DON'T GET IN THE MIDDLE OF IT. BELIEVE ME, NO ONE WILL THANK YOU.

OKAY, BUT WHEN IT ALL COMES OUT, AND PERSON A DISCOVERS THAT I KNEW ABOUT PERSON B'S AFFAIR, THAT'S GOING TO DAMAGE MY FRIENDSHIP WITH PERSON A, AND I REALLY CARE ABOUT MO!

I MEAN PERSON A.

SYDNEY'S CHEATING ON MO?

YEAH, WITH THIS WOMAN MADELINE. HER OLD PROFESSOR.

%!! THAT'S MO NOW, SHE'S GIVING ME A RIDE TO WORK.

DON'T SAY ANYTHING TO HER!

OH, LIKE I WOULD.

UH... HI, MO. HOW'D IT GOING?

I'VE BEEN BETTER, SPARROW, LEMME ASK YOU A QUESTION.

DON'T YOU THINK THAT IF YOU WERE REALLY CLOSE FRIENDS WITH SOMEONE, THEN YOU'D TELL HER IF YOU KNEW HER GIRLFRIEND WAS CHEATING ON HER?

OH, MO! I DO KNOW, BUT I JUST FOUND OUT!

OH! THANK GOD I'M NOT THE ONLY PERSON WHO KNOWS. SO SHOULD WE TELL CLARICE?

WHY WOULD WE TELL CLARICE ABOUT SYDNEY AND MADELINE?

...THIS IS NPR. "WE WILL FINISH THE TASK THEY GAVE THEIR LIVES FOR."

...SAID THE PRESIDENT YESTERDAY, ADDING A BRAVURA FLOURISH OF CIRCULAR REASONING TO THE VIRTUOUS CATALOG OF LOGICAL FALLACIES THAT HAS COMPRISED HIS IRAQ POLICY TO DATE.

SCREEEE! CRASH!

SHORT TIME LATER...

WELL, YOU'VE ANSWERED MY QUESTION. NO, DON'T INFORM YOUR FRIEND THAT HER GIRLFRIEND IS SCREWING AROUND. WHILE SHE'S DRIVING!

ON THE OTHER HAND, AS LONG AS SHE'S NOT IN TRAFFIC, I SEE NO REASON WHY HER EYES SHOULDN'T BE OPENED. I'M NOT GOING THROUGH THIS ALONE.

CLARICE? ARE YOU IN A MOVING VEHICLE?

HEY, MO. NO. I'M AT WORK. SUP?

horoscopes

By Rev. Bill Morin

Virgo

(August 23-September 22)

Full moon in your opposing sign of Pisces on Sept. 17 ignites career ambitions, big time. Relationship issues take top priority on the 26th. You make incredible financial headway on Oct. 5 and 6. It would be wise to run for cover on the 10th. The 13th is best for vegging.

Libra

(September 23-October 22)

This month starts out sluggishly, especially on Sept. 19. A head of steam gradually builds. You'll be exceedingly popular on the 26th. Don't make waves at work on the 30th. New moon/lunar eclipse combo in your sign on Oct. 3 triggers a two-month search for true love.

Aries

(March 20-April 19)

Study Pisces message. You'll be on the go all month long. But, in your case, there just won't be time to invest in a romantic interest. Not when there are so many people to see and things to do. There may be a brief respite on Oct. 8. Other than that, keep those track shoes laced up.

Scorpio

(October 23-November 21)

Financial frustrations that have dogged you begin to ease up on Sept. 20. Still, watch those spending habits. You'll be dazzling at production sessions on the 28th and 29th. Keep a low profile on Oct. 4. A temporary change in diet is recommended from the 6th-14th.

Taurus

(April 20-May 20)

Well intentioned advice may rile you on Sept. 19. Keep that temper in check on the 25th. Lunar eclipse on Oct. 3 brings about an amorous encounter. So much time on the road from the 6th-13th may wipe you out for a spell. A prominent new client manifestss around the 14th.

Sagittarius

(November 22-December 21)

Your services will be in such demand all month long. Don't overbook clients on Sept. 18 or it may backfire. Physical energies bounce back on the 29th. Financial momentum is rock solid through year's end. Oct. 12 shines brightest where romantic interests are concerned.

Gemini

(May 21-June 21)

Sept. 17 and 18 finds you moody and a bit detached. You'll bounce back by that festive gala on the 23rd. Don't joke around too much on the 29th. Your intuition proves especially strong on Oct. 4. Avoid making rash decisions on the 10th. Leave credit cards at home on the 13th.

Capricorn

(December 22-January 19)

That Midas touch of yours will be quite evident on Sept. 18 and 19. Go with the soft sell on the 26th. Getaway from Oct. 1 to 3 makes you feel new again. Terrific new employee takes on a major part of your huge workload. Home revisions complete on the 13th.

Cancer

(June 22-July 22)

Sept. 20 is a fine time to start that pre-holiday diet. It'll help sluggish energy levels. Minor financial setback on the 24th is temporary. The 30th proves to be a fast-paced marathon all day long. Good news from back home makes you smile on Oct 5. Finalize travel plans on the 11th.

Aquarius

(January 20-February 18)

Much of this period will be smooth & steady. That doesn't mean you won't be busy as a bee. Sept. 21 brings a minor financial windfall. The 30th is best to start new car shopping. Stay out of a roommate's problems on Oct. 3. A night out on the 13th proves magical.

Leo

(July 23-August 22)

This month looks like a 9 on a scale of 10. Just the way a Leo likes it. One downside is that people may be asking for help, loans or advice. Remember that even Leo only has so much to give. Sept. 18 provides gaiety and laughter. A small mystery is solved on Oct 9.

Pisces

(February 19-March 19)

An old proverb says, "Lucky with money, unlucky in love." That sums up this month. Career vibes look smooth as silk. You'll have lots of play money, especially on Sept. 25. But that painful though heartfelt relationship may come undone via that eclipse on Oct. 3.
