NEONFEST TURNS

By Jon Afalla

NeonFest, Las Vegas' own annual LGBT international film festival, will be held Oct. 20-22 at the new gay-owned Onyx Theater in The Rack (953 E. Sahara Ave. #101).

NeonFest showcases a diverse list of LGBT films ranging in subject matter from thought-provoking independent filmmakers to big-budget production studios. A critic's panel will be held to discuss this year's film selections.

Held previously at Crown Theaters in the Neonopolis Center, NeonFest hopes to offer a more intimate and comfortable setting at its new location. Now in its third year, the film festival also hopes to break attendance records and encourages patrons to stay the day at the new location, amid eight other gay businesses in the Commercial Center.

The 2006 NeonFest Program will be the official publication of NeonFest and will feature the weekend's schedule of events including show times, film synopses, sponsors and friends of NeonFest. The publication will be distributed two weeks prior to the festival throughout Las Vegas in the same places that Nightbeat and QVegas are available. The NeonFest Program will also be handed out one week before the event during the National Coming Out Day (NCOD) Street Festival. Additionally, every NeonFest attendee will receive a complimentary copy upon entrance to the theater.

NeonFest is also proud to announce here! TV as a platinum sponsor of this year's festival. Here! TV is America's premium gay television network and has the world's largest collection of gay and lesbian films appealing to the broad-based, diverse LGBT audience.

The ODYSSEY

By Jon Afalla

Not too long ago, I had a quandary. Do I go to Gay Days Anaheim or do I go to the Odyssey Adventures party at Six Flags Magic Mountain? Both appealed to me because of its reputation for fun and I hadn't gone to either event in the past. I couldn't, however, afford two back-to-back trips to California, so I weighed my options carefully.

On the one hand, the Odyssey Adventure party was a one-night event. Gay Days

Anaheim was a weekend-long event. The Odyssey Adventure party was limited to one theme park, whereas Gay Days Anaheim encompassed two. I would have to pay $41 at the door for a ticket to Odyssey Adventure, while I could easily get press access to Gay Days Anaheim.

The choice seemed clear, but my decision came down to one essential element: the rides. The rollercoasters at Magic Mountain are far superior, in my opinion, to the kiddie rides at Disneyland and California Adventure. I'm a thrill seeker at heart. I want to go on a ride where I'm flipped upside down numerous times, jetting at 85-100 mph. I don't want to sit on a slow boat listening to multi-ethnic robots chant "It's a small world after all," flanked by a legion of homos.

That's just too gay.

So I trekked down to Valencia Friday, Sept. 29 and entered the park long before the party started at 7 p.m. I had to get some use out of my season pass, which I hadn't used since the beginning of summer. I got onto every ride with virtually no wait (Thank God for off-seasons!). But at 6 p.m., everyone was ushered out of the park so the event staff could set up for the Pride-like event.

I bought my ticket to the event (season passes were not accepted for the private-party event) and waited outside of the gates among hundreds of gays and lesbians. People were getting restless. Anticipation was building. It felt like we were shoppers waiting outside of a major department store the morning of the day-after-Thanksgiving sale. Finally, we were ushered in.

When I first got into the park, I ran into a group of familiar Las Vegas lesbians, so we enjoyed the party together all evening. My priority was riding as many rollercoasters as possible. Their agenda involved more carnival-game playing—stuff that

THE TEN OF SWORDS

Bill is my friend and a professional psychic. He taught me how to read tarot cards. I was seduced into it by the free reading he gave me: According to Bill's cards, my future was looking A+ #1 top special. Hearing that gave me quite a rush. I thought that if I knew how to read the tiny soothsayers myself, I could get that rush over and over again, assuming my future didn't change (and considering it hadn't happened yet, I didn't see how it could).

Tarot cards are like playing cards but more complicated. There are 78, each with its own personality. One of the early steps in learning how to read them, according to Bill, is to spend time examining each one to get a sense of what mood it has. Another early step is to offer your soul to the Dark Lord and kill each of your blood relatives in sacrifice, but that goes without saying.

Since the cards reflect the life cycle, not all of them are good. Sadly, even the perkier of Gap employees must walk beneath a rain cloud some time, and there are cards to represent that. Death, the Tower, the Devil, the five of pentacles, the ten of swords and, depending on which side of the spanking you're on, Justice are all cards that could mean you're in for a rough patch. They could, but don't necessarily. Optimistic readers use the rebirth analogy while interpreting these: We must go through a kind of death before we can be reborn stronger. Think of the phoenix from mythology. Think of Christ.

An early task of mine was to shuffle the deck and flip over a lone card each morning to see how it would relate to my day. The first time I tried this I got a nasty one: the nine of swords. It often means mental unrest, delusion or paranoia. I was running late for work for the third day in a row, and I thought I was certainly in for it. I had just gotten a warning from my manager the previous shift. In the car I was freaking out about being fired; I was further angry at myself for playing with the tarot when I was already running behind.

Sure enough, I got off scot-free. My manager either didn't notice I was late or chose not to say anything. To me, that justified the card right there: I had simply been paranoid. It was relieving. I didn't know if I was right, but the rest of the day went by uneventfully, and when I tucked myself in that night I still felt that incident was why I'd drawn the card.

A few more coincidences like that had me feeling good about my new hobby. I still couldn't do a full-on reading, but I was enjoying drawing one card in the morning and seeing how it related to my day. A couple days after the nine, I flipped a more challenging card: the ten of swords. In most decks, the image on this card is of a man fallen to the ground with ten heavy swords plunged into his body. The body is always yours; the swords have defeated you.

I had the day off work. I was scared to do much of anything lest I put myself in a spot where tragedy could strike. I didn't want to answer the phone for fear of bad news, I didn't want to drive for fear of a wreck. The tension wasn't paralyzing, but my schedule was clear that day so it was easy for me to focus on hypothetical horrors. (P.S. I'm a masochist.)

Later that night I was supposed to rendezvous with some co-workers at a bar. I was convinced that was where I'd meet my swords—maybe in the form of an accident, maybe in the form of an arrest. To avoid that, I drank little. I could have gone one step further and drunk nothing, but at that point my superstition did not outrank my alcoholism.

Alas, all was quiet on the road and at the bar. The day was pretty much over and—hurrah!—still no bad news. My co-workers didn't want to stay out long, so on my way home I ducked into my favorite gay watering hole just to see who was there.

Danny saw me when I walked in the door. He was a friend I made when courting another guy named Danny about a year before. It was easy to remember his name because he was "Danny's friend Danny." I hadn't spoken to either one in months and was happy to see him.

A few minutes into the conversation, Danny abruptly changed the subject. "Hey, Danny wants you to talk to him," he said, meaning my former fling. "Why?" I asked.

"Just talk to him. He told me he needs to talk to you," was his reply. I didn't like the way he sounded. I prodded, but Danny would say nothing of the reason. Until, "He wouldn't tell me, but it sounded serious. He might be ... HIV ..."

The card flashed in my head. "OK. I'll see you later," I said, abandoning my beer. I left the bar, got in my car and drove home, contemplating how ten swords could fit so neatly into three little letters. ▼

SEX, GUNS & BETRAYAL

I'm a sucker for a good marketing campaign.

Often though, great packaging means only one thing: the product itself is sorely lacking and this pitiful deficiency is covered up by overblown hype. I realize that sounds a lot like gayland wherein the cuter the guy, the heavier the baggage. I've had dates that come with their own bellman, which, at times, has led me to enlist the services of my own bartender.

Such is not the case with the latest release from Falcon Studios called The Velvet Mafia. This two-part extravaganza has received a bigger buzz than Whitney Houston and Robert Downey, Jr. combined, and rightfully so. It's very well done. It's also a classic example of the dual nature of most art in that it may not turn you on aesthetically, yet there's no denying its superb quality when measured against an objective set of standards.

This flick has a huge cast, an intriguing plot, decent acting and is so well-produced you'd expect to see names like Spielberg and Altman somewhere in the credits, which leads me to wonder what would happen if those guys took over the porn industry. Mandatory circumcisions and price increases come to mind, not to mention all the whining on the set: "I pair you with the hottest model available, and for what? You don't write, you don't call...What's a director to do? Oy Vey!"

Herein lies the perfect segue: It has been said that the only difference between a New York Italian and a New York Jew is the smell, which ties in perfectly with the whole Mafia thing. The only problem is that the movie is set in California, which means you'd expect the dialogue to be in Spanish and the actors to be illegal.

The thrust of the story, as it were, goes something like this: Two rival gay porn production companies—one in West Hollywood and one in San Francisco—are once again at war, this time over a hot new model known as Fox Ryder. Bribery, assault, extortion and even murder are but a few of the tactics they use against each other, coupled with, of course, sexual manipulation, blackmail and betrayal.

Similarities to the Clinton administration aside, this makes for one hell of a flick. Don't worry that the sex might be buried under frivolous plotlines and corny acting, which is often the case when porn tries to be serious. This is Falcon, after all; the biggest gun of all in a business too often filled with peashooters.

Perhaps the most notoriety here comes cally "belongs" to the guys in West Hollywood but winds up playing both sides against the middle in a dangerous game of "show me the money." (Or would that be "hide the salami?") I won't expound at the risk of ruining the experience, but let's just say that the first disc ends with a cliffhanger of soap operatic proportions, minus the cheesy organ music.

Falcon exclusives Matthew Rush, Erik Rhodes and Roman Heart are but a few of the bruisers who shove, beat, harass, and screw themselves into the ground while serving as models and henchmen for the ancient queens who run the show. Old-timers Chad Hunt and Richie Fine even make an appearance, presumably supplementing their social security checks with one more crack at the, uh, crack.

The Velvet Mafia is directed by former star Chris Steele and contains all the elements we've come to expect from this San Francisco-based outfit. (Chi Chi LaRue works out of West Hollywood and used to gig for Falcon. File that one in the "things that make you go 'hmmm'" box.)

My only complaint is that they stole Corrigan's twinkish charm and Falconized him by giving him a new haircut, a tattoo, and a snarly demeanor. They took away his frisky, playful attitude and turned him into a slickly packaged product, much like LaRue did with Defiant Studios' Matthew Matters. Porn may be about fantasy, but sometimes it's hard to divorce yourself from the familiar, which means Fox/Brent should be allowed his authenticity. Isn't that what made him famous? And the rest of us horny?

I often refer to the activists in this town as the Gay Mafia. While the thought of Terry Wilsey schtupping Bill Schaefer borders on the obscene (if not the ridiculous), the fact remains that once again I've been ripped off. It's not easy being a visionary. It's also not easy imagining what might happen if Coppola got a hold of this thing.

What would they call it? The Godmother? ▼ from the appearance of Brent Corrigan in the role of Mr. Ryder. He's the dude from Cobra Video who sparked a huge controversy by doing several movies while underage, if you recall. He's also exceptionally cute and impish at 5'7" and 132 pounds—an anomaly at Falcon, where the models are linebackers and the sex would be more fitting on a gridiron than a bed.

Lest you be confused by the name change, normally porn stars are given their labels by the studio, which means if they jump ship they need to adopt a new persona. The conundrum in this case occurs in that Fox Ryder is the name Falcon has bestowed upon Corrigan, yet it is also the name of the character he portrays.

Fox/Brent is fresh off the turnip truck from Iowa, a stranger to gay sex and an even stranger stranger to gay pornography. He techni-

Films With Gay Appeal

MOVIES OUT LATE OCTOBER

By Jon Afalla

MARIE ANTOINETTE

From the imagination of Oscar-winning writer/director Sofia Coppola (Lost in Translation, The Virgin Suicides) comes a vibrant retelling of Marie Antoinette, the naïve Austrian princess thrown into the scandal-ridden world of French aristocracy when she is betrothed to King Louis XVI. While still a teenager, Antoinette conquers her fears and becomes France's iconic queen. Marie Antoinette stars Kirsten Dunst (Bring It On, The Virgin Suicides) in the title role with Jason Schwartzman (Shopgirl, I Heart The Huckabees) as King Louis XVI.

Other notable cast members include Rip Torn as King Louis XV, Judy Davis as the Comtesse de Noailles and Molly Shannon as Aunt Victoire.

Gay appeal? Gay favorite Kirsten Dunst in a leading, party-girl role.

In Theaters nationwide Oct. 20.

RUNNING WITH SCISSORS

Running With Scissors is a hilarious and shocking film based on the personal memoir of bestselling author Augusten Burroughs. Growing up in the '70s, Augusten Burroughs (Joseph Cross) was living a middle-class existence with an alcoholic father (Alec Baldwin) and a bipolar mother (Annette Bening), an unpublished poet with delusions of becoming famous. When his parents divorce, Burroughs' mother sends him to live with her unorthodox psychiatrist, Dr. Finch, and his eccentric extended family. Running With Scissors chronicles Burroughs' survival under the most extraordinary of circumstances.

Screen-written and directed by Nip/Tuck creator Ryan Murphy, the film also stars Evan Rachel Wood (Thirteen), Jill Clayburgh (Ally McBeal, Nip/Tuck), Joseph Fiennes (Shakespeare in Love) and Gwyneth Paltrow (Shallow Hal, Bounce).

Gay appeal? Running With Scissors is based on gay author Burroughs' personal memoir and is directed by out director Murphy. Fiennes also plays Burroughs' pedophilic boyfriend and Bening plays his mother who gets involved in relationships with women after her divorce.

In theaters nationwide Oct. 20.

required more athletic prowess. Go figure.

I did, however, climb the rock wall with them. Thinking it wouldn't be a difficult task, I opted for the pro section of the wall. I was doing fine until I hit the middle and couldn't get a good footing on the wall. After clinging to dear life on a groove above my head for a good five minutes, I conceded and let go. As the rope gently brought me down to the ground, my fingers writhed in agony. It felt like they had fingered the entire group of lesbians and were aching from exhaustion. Note to self: Rock climbing requires a lot of upper-body strength. Of which I shamefully do not possess.

Being there during the day and enjoying the queer festival at night, I noticed several differences. For one, when I went to the men's restroom during the day, the men utilized stalls that were the farthest away from other male attendants, while at night men preferred to use stalls next to other guys, casually sneaking glances at their neighbor's package. Also, girls during the day wore dresses and skirts, while girls at the Odyssey party opted for a more rugged look: jeans and wife beaters. And, instead of mariachi music flowing from the park speakers, we had Fergie and other diva dance remixes pumping from two separate dance areas.

When the party began, there were only about a few hundred patrons in the park. By the end of the night, there were several thousand gays and lesbians parading around hand in hand. Girlfriends, boyfriends, groups of friends, families, even straight allies attended. The parking lot went from nearly desolate to almost full. For one evening, the gays ruled Magic Mountain. And that was a very liberating experience.

IN HELLBENT

CHILL FACTOR

By Jon
Afalla

Looking for DVDs to get you in the mood for Halloween?
Check out these two hot releases from here! TV.

HELLBENT

From the co-creator of Halloween and the executive producer of A Nightmare On Elm Street comes Hellbent, a slasher movie with a gay twist. Set in West Hollywood's famed Halloween Carnival, the movie follows four gay friends en route to the festival. A gay-targeting serial killer clad in a sensual devil ensemble follows them. The fun-filled festival quickly takes a turn for the worse when, one by one, each friend encounters the devil. Although the film quality may be on the mediocre side, the story line and hot ensemble make up for the rest.

Available Now. here! TV. $19.95

DANTE'S COVE

Looking for a new guilty pleasure? Check out the first season of here! TV's flagship drama Dante's Cove, now available on DVD. The show, hailed as a cross between Melrose Place and Buffy The Vampire

Slayer, follows the young and beautiful residents of Hotel Dante whose lives are changed after the island's supernatural past comes back to haunt them. With great plots, lush scenery and a beautiful cast, Dante's Cove will sure to have you thirsting for more.

Available Now. here! TV. $26.95

You can also catch Hellbent and season two of Dante's Cove on here! TV. Check local cable company for availability. For more information, visit www.heretv.com. ▼

TROY By Michael Derry #159 'ACTUAL, REAL-LIFE GENIUS'

SO, I WAS AT THE PARK WITH HALLE TODAY AND I RAN INTO YOUR OLD FRIEND, NITRO. OH, YEA?

YEA. AND, YOU KNOW, HE SAID THE DARDEST THING. HE TOLD ME YOU ARE A GENIUS. AN ACTUAL, REAL-LIFE GENIUS! HOW ABOUT THAT?

DID HE? HEH HEH. SO... DOES THAT... BOTHER YOU?

THAT YOU'RE A GENIUS? NO! THAT EVERYTHING ABOUT YOU IS A TOTAL LIE? THAT YOU'RE NOT DUMB AND ALL THIS TIME YOU LET ME THINK THAT YOU WERE? YES! NOW THAT... THAT BOTHERS ME!

BUT! BUT, YOU LIKED ME THAT WAY! DIDN'T YOU?

THAT'S NOT THE POINT! I FELT IN LOVE WITH YOU IN SPITE OF YOUR 'STUPIDITY'! IS IT ALL AN ACT...? LIKE THE WAY YOU TALK? 'DUDE!' AND 'CHILL' ALL THE TIME? DUDE! WHAT IS UP WITH THAT?

OK, I COULD... I COULD WALK AROUND TALKING ALL SMART ALL THE TIME IF I WANTED TO AND HAVE ALL KINDS OF OPINIONS AND STUFF, YA KNOW?

BUT I LIKE THE WAY I TALK AND I THINK YOU TOTALLY DO TOO! DON'T TELL ME I'M WRONGS. I KNOW I'M NOT, BUT LIKE, MAYBE... MAYBE I JUST WANT TO HANG OUT WITH A FUN, CUTE GUY LIKE YOU AND LIKE... YOU KNOW... HOLD HANDS AND EAT POTATO CHIPS AND HAVE SEX AND READ COMIC BOOKS AND STUFF. SO, LIKE... C/NOH! DUDE! IS THAT SO WRONG?

DUDE! THIS IS LIKE THE ORIGINAL ORIGIN STORY OF ASTRO-MAN! WHY ARE YOU ACTUALLY READING THIS?

DUDE. CHILL. I GOT, LIKE, ANOTHER ONE IN THE FOIL, NEVER OPENED. WHADDA YA THINK, I'M STUPID OR SOMETHIN'?

TROY By Michael Derry #160 'MY NEW MAN'

DERRICK. HI. YOU CUT YOUR HAIR. LOOKS GOOD. YOU LOOK GOOD. REALLY GOOD.

WELL THANKS. MY NEW MAN LIKES IT THIS WAY.

RIGHT, TROY... UH... TROY TOLD ME YOU'RE SEEING SOMEONE ONE. THAT'S... GOOD. I'M HAPPY FOR YOU.

YEA, AND HE IS HOT! I MEAN, REALLY, REALLY, REALLY HOT!

TROY SAID HE'S AN OLD FRIEND OF NICK'S SO I FIGURED HE'D BE ALL... HUNKY, MUSCULAR... YOU KNOW, I SORTA MET A BEEFY...

OH! AND LOOK! HE JUST SENT ME A TEXT MESSAGE! 'HEY! WHAT R U UP TO?'

HELLO?

LET'S SEE... REPLY. I? I? FOUR. FOUR. FOUR. I. OH... F... NO WAIT. M? M? WHERE IS THE M?

OH, HEY! HOW ARE YOU? YEA. IT WAS NICE MEETING YOU AT THE PARK TOO. HOWS AGE? GIVE HIM A BONE FOR ME. HA HA! YEA? WELL I GOT ONE FOR YOU TOO. THIS WEEK? NO I DON'T HAVE ANY PLANS. THAT I KNOW OF! I MEAN TO SAY, NOT THAT I KNOW OFF THE TOP OF MY HEAD.

FINE. NO WAIT. GOOD. G. DAMN! DELETE. G. O...

TOMORROW? YES, YES, I WOULD REALLY... THAT WOULD BE GOOD. GREAT. YEA. I LOVE SUSHI. WHAT TIME? YOU WANT ME TO PICK YOU UP OR YOU WANT TO PICK ME UP? OK. I'LL SEE YOU AT 8:00. YEA. ME TOO.

AND W. W. NO. YES. WHAT'S UP WITH YOU? AND... SEND!

OH YEA, BABY! HE WANTS ME.

I'M SORRY. I JUST GOT A CALL. DID YOU SAY SOMETHING?

NO! PLEASE! STOP!

ALL RIGHT! ALL RIGHT! I'M AWAKE! GOD, VIRGINIA, YOU SHOULD GET A JOB IN A SECRET DETENTION FACILITY.

YOU HAVE TO GET UP ANYWAY. YOU HAVE 'DISORDER, DEGENERACY AND DEVIANCE' AT EIGHT.

I NEED A SABBATICAL.

READY FOR YOUR BREAKFAST? WHERE'S YOUR SISTER?

VANESSA?

MO!

KITTY?!

OH, GOD.

SHE'S ALL STIFF. IT MUST HAVE HAPPENED HOURS AGO.

THANKS FOR COMING OVER, TOM. SEE? I TRY TO OPEN THE FREEDOM TO MARRY DATABASE AND IT SAYS 'FILE CORRUPT.'

I CAN FIX THIS. I JUST HOPE STELLA DOESN'T MIND HANGING OUT WITH RAFFI FOR A WHILE.

MEANWHILE, UPSTAIRS...

NO WAY! MAYBE YOU'LL BELIEVE ME ONE YOU SEE THIS.

I SAW GLORIA THIS AFTERNOON AT THE GROCERY STORE.

THAT'S NICE. DID YOU HAVE SEX WITH HER?

YEAH, IN THE DAIRY CASE.

SHE'S NOT DOING SO GOOD. ANA MOVED OUT LAST WEEK. STELLA'S HAVING A HARD TIME AND DOESN'T WANT TO GO TO SCHOOL. IT SOUNDS AWFUL.

WELL, GLORIA SHOULD HAVE THOUGHT OF THAT BEFORE SHE...

ARE YOU SPYING ON US? CLICK.

SEE? TOLD YOU.

RAFFI! WHAT ARE YOU DOING?!

THEY HAD SEX AT THE GROCERY STORE?!

NO, DIPPARD! THAT PART WAS A JOKE. BUT SOMETHING'S GOING ON.

YOU KNOW WHAT WE SHOULD DO?

WHAT?

THEY'RE ANWFULLY QUIET.

PIRATES! CAPTAIN!

KIDS? ARE YOU HUNGRY?

NO THANK YOU!

By Rev. Bill Morin

Libra

(September 23-October 22)

Oct. 19 looks hot for making key investments. A friendship may blossom into love on the 25th. Watch out for wacky drivers on the 30th. Watch what you say in temper Nov. 4. A new career opportunity is a heart-beat away. Avoid socializing on the 12th.

Scorpio

(October 23-November 21)

Resist the urge to bully Oct 17. Your networking talents prove to be in high gear on the 23rd. Major career obstacle will vanish on the 28th. Let your sweetheart have the last word Nov 6. You'll get to paint the town red on the 11th. Try a new hairstyle on the 14th.

Taurus

(April 20-May 20)

It's nice to be in such constant demand, but don't burn yourself out, Taurus. Making money is important, but it's not the only thing in life. Halloween proves a social milestone for you. The weather may interfere with travel plans Nov. 8. A parent calls with good news on the 11th.

Sagittarius

(November 22-December 21)

As financial burdens ease, you seem to glow. Extra cash Oct 21 makes you smile. A newfound friend is met on the 28th. Don't push away that cute Gemini just because he's younger. Try a new watering hole Nov 4. The 10th looks best for starting a new diet.

Gemini

(May 21-June 21)

Your focus and hard work really begin to pay off as of Oct. 20. It's as if you'll finally be discovered, Gemmy. Bask in the glow of recognition and respect, but don't let it go to your head. An amazing romantic encounter Nov. 3 could lead to something more. Look your best on the 13th.

Capricorn

(December 22-January 19)

A lack of chaos and drama this month should please you. Meetings Oct 17 provide much-needed clarity at work. Your Halloween outfit will be a smash. Fund-raisers Nov. 3 yield more than you'd hoped. Much-needed getaway from 10th-12th proves rejuvenating.

Cancer

(June 22-July 21)

Physical energies could be a tad low until Oct. 21. You get to successfully mediate a dispute on the 29th. Avoid the easy way out (however tempting) Nov. 5. Deadlines and appointments on the 7th push your stress levels to the max, so it's vital to let off some steam on the 10th and 11th.

Aquarius

(January 20-February 18)

Unlike Cappy, surprises and a bit of chaos reign supreme all month long, and you love it. Your artistic muse blossoms Oct. 21. Holiday bash on the 28th brings out your charming side. Delays Nov. 7 will test your patience. A large debt or mortgage is paid by the 14th.

Leo

(July 23-August 22)

Everyone loves a go-getter, which means you are ADORED. Your charms prove hard to resist Oct 20. Of course, your costume wins first prize on the 29th. Let a co-worker have the spotlight Nov 8. That on-again, off-again romance is headed for a complete shutdown.

Pisces

(February 19-March 19)

Financial aspects are highlighted all month long, mostly favorably. Do everything by the book Oct 19. Don't new-car shop until the 24th. New clients help thicken your wallet at month's end. A second source of income in early November shall help to shrink that mountain of debt.

Virgo

(August 23-September 22)

It's been said that clothes makes the man/woman. That being the case, you're due for a new wardrobe. Avoid partying too much Oct 27. Nov. 4 is best for beginning any redecorating plans. Out-of-town guests provide you with laughter and joy on the 11th and 12th.

Aries

(March 20-April 19)

You can do no wrong in the latter part of October, Aries. So, it's best to work like a dynamo right up to the 31st. Accept praise from the boss with some humility. Planetary aspects from Nov. 2-14 will make it seem as if you're waltzing on banana peels. Proceed slowly and with caution.

Treasure Island Media is more a cult than a film studio.
-Mark Adams, Vidioview.com

Wow...ok, so I was at a friend's house over the weekend and we were watchin the Plantin Seed 2 video. I've never been so turned on before. I mean, the entire video is hot. Every scene literally had my [redacted] throbbing. The reason for this email though has to be that last scene between Jason Summers and Johnny Farrell. Johnny probably has the best ass I've ever seen in porn. It's like it was made for [redacted] I wanted to dive in the tv screen and [redacted] out myself. The whole scene is a challenge to slutty bottoms everywhere. He obviously enjoyed that Jason's [redacted] and he took that [redacted] like a champion (and what a [redacted] it was...damn) He made me want to [redacted] that ass, and for that I have to say great job to you. I mean, porn is porn, but for me to decide to send an email about a porn I saw 4 days ago that's still fresh in my memory means it was [redacted] hot. Thanks...and uh, when do I get to see more of Johnny's ass?

Treasure Island Media is the best porn studio there should be a law against.
