QARMA Nightclub and Queen Bar

In the vibrant heart of Las Vegas, a new era of LGBTQ+ nightlife is emerging, thanks to the creative vision of Eduardo Cordova. With the recent opening of QARMA Nightclub and the success of Queen Bar, Cordova is redefining entertainment in the city known for its dazzling spectacles.

Queen Bar: A New Jewel in Vegas' Crown

Since its opening in September, Queen Bar has quickly become a beloved hotspot for both locals and tourists. Despite facing several setbacks, Cordova and his team have persevered, creating an atmosphere that's both inviting and exhilarating. Operating Thursday through Sunday, Queen Bar has adapted to its winter hours, with plans to extend as warmer months and brunch season approach.

One of the bar's standout features is its weekend drag brunches, held on both Saturdays and Sundays. These events have gained rapid popularity, a testament to the quality and appeal of the performances. "We see so many shows and so many brunches," Cordova explains. "It's hard to impress locals." Yet, Queen Bar has done just that, with recent weekends boasting sold-out shows.

Cordova's vision for the drag brunches was to create an experience that transcends the ordinary. Described as "a drag party brunch," these events are characterized by high energy and an invitation for guests to let loose and dance. The atmosphere is transformed with glow sticks, lasers, and fog machines, ensuring a memorable experience for attendees.

QARMA Nightclub: A Symbol of Community and Celebration

The grand opening of QARMA Nightclub is a significant addition to Cordova's portfolio. Its name reflects Cordova's broader ambitions of creating a cohesive district of businesses that support and enrich one another. His work with the city to incentivize gay-owned businesses in the area is a testament to his commitment to community building.

QARMA stands out for its unique design and ambiance. Guests are greeted by an LED tunnel that sets the stage for what lies ahead: a sprawling space with a 25-foot ceiling, adorned with over 50,000 LED lights and equipped with 30 lasers and CO2 effects. The club's mission is to deliver a full Vegas nightclub experience, specifically tailored to the LGBTQ+ community.

The nightclub, open only on Fridays and Saturdays from 11 p.m., features a variety of themed nights and special events. These include monthly circuit parties and unique promotions like Underwear Night on Saturdays, where guests in underwear enjoy free drinks for a limited time. The club also hosts major events, such as the official after-party for the GayVN awards this weekend and international DJ-led circuit parties.

Staying Connected and Informed

To stay updated on the latest events and happenings at QARMA and Queen Bar, visitors can visit the queenlv.com website. This centralized platform provides information on upcoming events, like the circuit parties planned for February and March.

The Convenience of Location and Parking

Despite being closer to downtown, a common concern in Las Vegas, QARMA and Queen Bar offer ample free parking. Guests can park at the Thunderbird Hotel, Super Eight, and Viva Las Vegas Chapel, all within the same block and owned by the same proprietor.

An Inclusive Experience

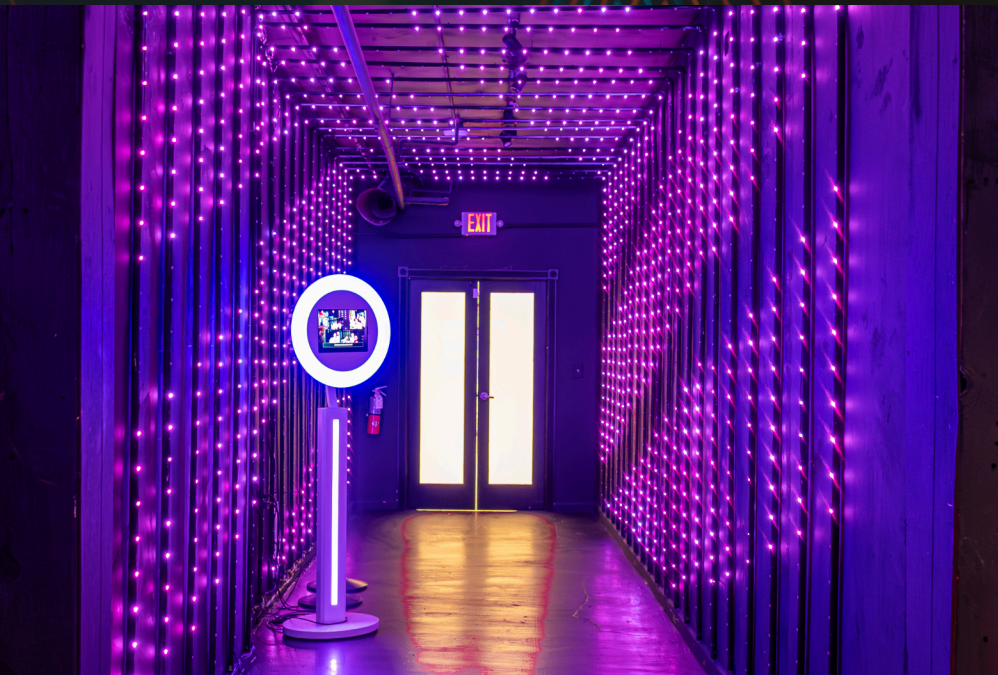

Cordova's establishments are not just about partying; they're about creating a sense of belonging and community. With Queen Bar offering a more relaxed, lounge-like atmosphere, and QARMA providing a high-energy nightclub experience, guests have the flexibility to choose their vibe. The ability to move between the two venues adds to the appeal, offering a diverse musical programming and setting.

Special Events and Celebrations

Looking forward, QARMA and Queen Bar are poised to become key destinations for major events. For instance, a Super Bowl party is planned, showcasing the game on all the screens and LEDs in both the nightclub and the bar. Such events underscore Cordova's vision of creating spaces that cater to a wide range of interests and occasions.

Conclusion

QARMA Nightclub and Queen Bar represent more than just entertainment venues; they are symbols of a thriving, inclusive LGBTQ+ community in Las Vegas. By offering a diverse range of events, from high-energy drag brunches to cutting-edge nightclub experiences, these establishments are not just places to party—they are places where everyone can feel accepted and celebrated. As Cordova continues to shape the landscape of Las Vegas' nightlife, the LGBTQ+ community and its allies have much to look forward to.
