Whether you're a local or tourist, we always feature our favorite spots along with all the new and exciting things our city has to offer.

This week we kick off Black History Month featuring Las Vegas community leader André Wade, state director of Silver State Equality. André creates awareness and brings visibility to some of the most underrepresented and vulnerable people. His ability to serve communities that sometimes intersect is not only needed, but shines a beacon of hope to the lives that he impacts.

Silver State Equality will host the Second Annual Las Vegas National Black HIV/AIDS Awareness Dinner & Show at the Culinary Academy of Las Vegas on Tuesday, February 7. For more info or to RSVP visit silverstateequality.org

Las Vegas community leader André Wade creates awareness and brings visibility to some of the most underrepresented and vulnerable people. His ability to serve communities that sometimes intersect is not only needed, but shines a beacon of hope to the lives that he impacts.

Black communities have made great progress in reducing HIV. Yet racism, discrimination, and mistrust in the health care system may affect whether Black people seek or receive HIV prevention services. These issues may also reduce the likelihood of engaging in HIV treatment and care. NBHAAD is an opportunity to increase HIV education, testing, community involvement, and treatment among Black communities.

André is the state director for Silver State Equality. In this role he leads legislative, fundraising and political efforts in the state of Nevada. With a Bachelor's in Psychology and a Master's in Public Administration, André has worked in human services for nearly 25 years in a variety of public and nonprofit contexts working on issues such as developmental disabilities, child welfare, youth experiencing homelessness national policy advocacy, diversity, equity and inclusion, and LGBTQ+ advocacy.

André has served on several boards and committees focused on LGBTQ+ equality and inclusion such as the Human Rights Campaign's Advisory Council for the All Children's All Families program. Andre is a two-time appointee to Governor Sisolak's Advisory Task Force on HIV Exposure Modernization for the State of Nevada.

In order to celebrate the gains made in HIV prevention, Silver State Equality will host the Second Annual Las Vegas National Black HIV/AIDS Awareness Dinner & Show at the Culinary Academy of Las Vegas on Tuesday, February 7. The event will highlight the work being done to decrease HIV stigma and boost HIV testing, prevention, and treatment, and envision a future without HIV/AIDS.

Performances by Vogue Robinson, author and Clark County Nevada's second poet laureate in 2017; Javon Johnson, a three-time poetry slam champion and four-time national finalist; Brittany Soul, spoken word artist; Andy Feds, comedian and HIV awareness and education advocate, and a dance performance by CJ Edwards, Mr. Gay USofA.

Guests will also hear from Davina "Dee" Connor, an international speaker and HIV advocate and educator; Chyna "Yoshi" St. Laurent, transgender advocate, the Nevada Faith & Health Coalition, and more.

The emcee for the evening is comedian and actor Clark Lewis.

Registration for the event is free. Food and a cash bar will be provided prior to the program. The event is co-sponsored by Aetna, Black Queer Men of Las Vegas, Minority Health Consultants, and Nevada Energy Foundation.

February 7 is National HIV/AIDS Awareness Day (NBHAAD), which was first observed in 1999. NBHAAD is planned by the Strategic Leadership Council each year. This observance is a day to acknowledge how HIV disproportionately affects Black people.
