Whether you're a local or tourist, we always feature our favorite spots along with all the new and exciting things our city has to offer.

This week we feature the Henderson Pride Film Festival, a week-long event that showcases classic LGBTQ+ films that built our history and new movies that shape our future. The festival kicks off with PROUD in a Pandemic, a new documentary that captures DTLA's annual pride event without an event, followed by classics TRICK and Priscilla. Tangerine and TransAmerica tell important transgender stories, and BROS closes out the festival as the newest LGBTQ+ film to be released.

Screenings are hosted at venues all over Vegas, so check the schedule and get your tickets at hendersonpride.org

Every week we spend a lot of time putting together the QVegas Guide to Las Vegas. It's a labor of love trying to find all the events, businesses and activities that we think the LGBTQ+ community would like.

We rely on advertisers to keep this a free resource. If you want to promote your event, business, or activity, contact us today!

PROUD IN A PANDEMIC

Friday, February 17th @ 6pm

The LGBTQ Center of Southern Nevada

401 S Maryland Parkway

Las Vegas, Nevada 89101

OPENING RECEPTION

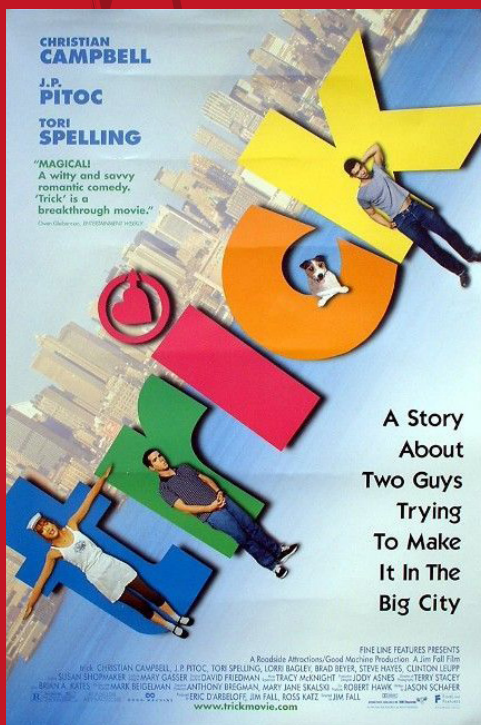

Q & A with Executive Producers, Oliver Alpuche & Scottie Jeanette Madden

Hosted by Fanny D Pack

Big community energy alert. Getting through a crisis is never a straight line. At last, our documentary – PROUD in a Pandemic – is ready for their grand debut in the 2022 film festival circuit. Stay tuned for more updates on which festivals will feature our movie. Reaching this milestone was a monumental effort that was only made possible thanks to the hundreds of volunteer hours from our production crew, interviewees, boards, lawyers, sponsors, donors and countless others.

The COVID-19 pandemic challenged the DTLA PROUD organizers to re-examine the true meaning of Pride without physical events. Coupled with the historic uprising against racial injustice and discrimination, this film captures a moment in time when despite these common struggles, the breadth and diversity of the LGBTQ+ community is becoming more connected and united than ever before. The PROUD in a Pandemic film is a time capsule of stories about the innovation, survival, and resilience of the LGBTQ+ community.

Trick is a 1999 American gay-themed romantic comedy film directed by Jim Fall and starring Christian Campbell, John Paul Pitoc, Miss Coco Peru, and Tori Spelling. Independently produced by Eric d'Arbeloff, Ross Katz, and Fall, the film was written by Jason Schafer. Trick premiered at the Sundance Film Festival in January 1999 and was later released theatrically by Fine Line Features that July.

Gabriel, an office temp by day and aspiring Broadway composer by night, makes eye contact with Mark, a go-go dancer at a gay bar. The two meet again in the subway the same night, and go back to Gabriel's place to have sex. They are thwarted in the attempt first by Gabriel's aspiring actress friend Katherine, who is obsessed with her role in an adaptation of Salomé set in a women's prison, and then by Gabriel's roommate Rich, who returns home with his girlfriend Judy and has similar (and conflicting) plans for the apartment.

The Adventures of Priscilla, Queen of the Desert is a 1994 Australian road comedy film written and directed by Stephan Elliott. The plot follows two drag queens, played by Hugo Weaving and Guy Pearce, and a transgender woman, played by Terence Stamp, as they journey across the Australian Outback from Sydney to Alice Springs in a tour bus that they have named "Priscilla", along the way encountering various groups and individuals.

The film was a surprise worldwide hit and its positive portrayal of LGBT individuals helped to introduce LGBT themes to a mainstream audience. It received predominantly positive reviews and won an Academy Award for Best Costume Design at the 67th Academy Awards. Among other designers the film's costume department included many pieces of costume jewelry by Ziggy Attias of Ziggy Originals, NYC. It was screened in the Un Certain Regard section of the 1994 Cannes Film Festival and became a cult classic both in Australia and abroad. Priscilla subsequently provided the basis for a musical, Priscilla, Queen of the Desert, which opened in 2006 in Sydney before traveling to New Zealand, the United Kingdom, Canada, and Broadway.

The screenplay, inspired in part by conversations between Tucker and his then roommate Katherine Connella, tells the story of Bree (Huffman), a trans woman, who goes on a road trip with her long-lost son Toby (Zegers).

One week before her vaginoplasty, a trans woman named Sabrina "Bree" Osbourne receives an unexpected phone call from a young man named Toby Wilkins, a 17-year-old jailed in New York City. He asks for Stanley Schupak (Bree's deadname), claiming to be her son. Bree was previously unaware she had a son; she now wants to break with her past and renounce him.
