GENDERFEST 2022

at The Center

Saturday, March 26th
10am - 4pm

401 S. Maryland Pkwy, Las Vegas, NV

International Transgender Day of Visibility, is an annual event occurring on March 31 and is dedicated to celebrating trans people and raising awareness of discrimination faced by transgender, non-binary, and other gender non-conforming people worldwide, as well as a celebration of their contributions to society. It was founded by trans activist, Rachel Crandall of Michigan, in 2009. International Transgender Day of Visibility is a response to the lack of LGBT recognition of trans people and citing the frustration that the only well-known trans-centered day was the "Transgender Day of Remembrance," which mourned the murders of trans people, but did not acknowledge and celebrate living members of the trans community.

"Trans people are extraordinary, strong, intelligent, persistent and resilient. We have to be. And we will not stand for the picking and choosing of rights. We still have hope."

—Grace Dolan-Sandrino

"Gender is not what people look like to other people; it is what we know ourselves to be. No one else should be able to tell you who you are; that's for you to decide."

—Alok Vaid-Menon

Room #2 Trans Masculinity

A few notes for attendees:

1. This is a day for trans, non-binary, and other gender non-conforming voices to be heard. During a discussion of an issue affecting a marginalized group, members of that group have priority. If you are not in that group, double check yourself before commenting.
2. Avoid "tone policing," which involves censoring a speaker's perceived emotions or tone. Focus on content, not perceived emotion.
3. Do not belittle or ignore someone's lived experiences.
4. Respect intersectionality and be aware of your own privilege.
5. Tokenization of an identity is not acceptable.
6. Respect confidentiality. What is said here, stays here. Never share quotes or stories without the express permission of all involved.
7. Remember that education is an ongoing process. Please seek out resources that are provided and continue to learn after today.

Glossary Of Terms

These terms and definitions are always evolving and changing and often mean different things to different people. They are provided below as a starting point for discussion and understanding.

This is only a small list of terms because we cannot possibly fit all of the infinite labels and categorizations of gender identity and expression into one page.

Genderfluid: A person who does not identify themselves as having a fixed gender.

Gender affirmation: The process of making changes to recognize and express one's gender identity. This might include any combination of social, legal, and/or medical changes.

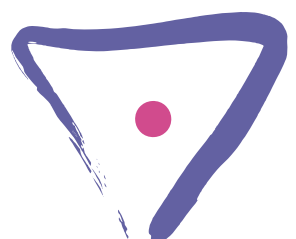

Intersex: Individuals who are born with characteristics which are not typically male or female. They may have chromosomes, external or internal genitalia that is not considered typical for a male or female.

Non-binary (also sometimes considered Genderqueer): A person whose gender identity doesn't fit into the traditional gender binary structure of man or woman. This might be in-between, both, or beyond.

Transgender: Someone whose gender identity differs from the sex assigned at birth.

Two-Spirit: An Indigenous person who embodies both a masculine and feminine spirit.
