Whether you're a local or tourist, we always feature our favorite spots along with all the new and exciting things our city has to offer.

Last week was a gorgeous sunny weekend for Henderson Pride Festival and AFAN's AIDS Walk. The fundraising continues at the HRC Las Vegas Gala this week. Featured on our dual covers are award recipients Eduardo Cordova and Larry Edwards.

RuPaul's All-Star viewing parties return to Art Houz on Fridays and this season there are TWO VEGAS QUEENS! Kahanna Montrese and Jaymes Mansfield are out to represent!

The mercury is rising just in time to warm up for Temptation Sundays opening weekend at Luxor, then cool down at GLAM's special Mother's Day edition at Ghostbar on the exquisite rooftop of the Palms.

Eduardo Cordova Equality Award

Eduardo Cordova emerged in the gay scene in 2007, starting the White Party Vegas and pioneering the concept of an LGBT pool party on the Las Vegas strip. Cordova has significantly contributed to the integration and visibility of the LGBT community in the mainstream nightlife of the city.

His strategic partnerships and vision have led to the success of many ventures, such as Closet Sundays at Revolution Lounge, Sunkissed

Sundays at Luxor pool, THE ABBEY BEACH at Vdara Hotel's pool, and the massive SUNDANZE event at JET NIGHTCLUB.

Cordova's collaboration with Matinee Group in Spain resulted in the largest Gay Festival in Las Vegas, which drew over 30,000 attendees over Memorial Day weekend. He also played a key role as a nightlife consultant, working with various clubs like Secret nightclub and Krave nightclub, and opening Share

Nightclub, which quickly became a popular destination in the Las Vegas gay scene.

His work with The Cosmopolitan helped attract the LGBT market to the property and involved curating special events and concerts for a two-year period.

Eduardo has had a profound impact on the Las Vegas gay nightlife scene, fostering an inclusive and vibrant community and is well deserving of the HRC Equality Award for 2023.

Larry Edwards

Trailblazer for Equality Award

Larry Edwards, a true icon in the entertainment world and a beloved figure in Las Vegas, has had a profound impact on the LGBTQ+ community. Known globally as Hot Chocolate, Edwards was crowned Miss Gay America in 1980 and has since been recognized by numerous prominent figures, including Las Vegas Mayor Oscar Goodman, who presented him with the Key to the City, and RuPaul, who honored him during the season finale of RuPaul's Drag Race Season 14.

Originally hailing from Fort Myers,

Florida, Edwards moved to Las Vegas to share his talents with a wider audience, appearing on various stages across the city and even on the big screen. Among his many accomplishments, he was featured in Miss Congeniality 2 alongside Sandra Bullock and made appearances on talk shows such as The Oprah Winfrey Show.

Larry Edwards has been a trailblazer in the drag community, inspiring newer generations of performers with his humility and dedication to his craft. As a long-standing member of the Piranha family,

Edwards is highly respected within the Las Vegas LGBTQ+ community and continues to bring joy to those around him.

You can find Larry Edwards welcoming guests at Piranha Nightclub on weekends and delivering show-stopping performances as the legendary Tina Turner and Patti LaBelle during Drag Brunch at Senor Frogs at Treasure Island.

Please take part in the Community Marketing & Insights (CMI) 17th Annual LGBTQ Community Survey!

For over a decade, this survey has provided free data to help non-profits, universities, and organizations better understand and serve the LGBTQ community. The report will be published on the CMI.info website for free download on approximately August 15. Previous surveys have had over 45,000 participants from 150 countries!

Also, participation in this survey gives important feedback to our LGBTQ community media and organizations, and provides data to companies interested in serving our community, sponsoring our charities, and supporting their LGBTQ employees.

The survey should take about 12 to 15 minutes to complete.
