ANGRY F@GS QVEGAS APPRECIATION NIGHT

"It's only terrorism if it doesn't work.
When it works, we call it a revolution."

Angry Fags opens this week at the Majestic Repertory Theater in downtown Las Vegas, and QVegas readers were treated to an exclusive dress rehearsal. This is a must-see production!

Teaming up with his best friend, the two men embark on a vendetta of sabotage and assassinations, reasoning that if gays aren't respected enough to win equal justice and rights, fear will achieve what good intentions and politics cannot.

Vicious, deliciously savage, brutal, and breathtakingly funny, this dystopian revenge satire pushes every button. Set in Georgia during a midterm election, a hate crime becomes the lynchpin in a left-wing terrorist movement.

VEGAS! THE SHOW

Tickets are available on a first-come basis.

It seems that Vegas might need to add “The Capital of Drag Brunches” alongside Weddings, Conventions, Entertainment, and Headliners... because we just added a new one to the line-up. But this one is doing things differently. This time the Queens are doing it for themselves! A Whole Brunch of Queens is the creation of long-time friends and RuPaul’s Drag Race Sisters Coco Montrese and Alexis Mateo.

After many years of working in different venues, and headlining various shows the duo decided that it was time to create a show by queens for queens. The experiences, both good and bad, that come along with doing shows for other venues have led them to the next evolution of their professional endeavors. Their shared history and work ethic solidified their destiny to create something together.

Coco was recently on the cover of QVegas, celebrating 30 years of his drag career. In 2000 Montrese and Mateo were working at Disney World, where Coco put Alexis in drag for the first time. They joke that Coco is forever young so sisters—rather than drag mother—is what stuck.

The duo partnered with business professional and dear friend, Letha Myles to produce the show at the Art Houz Theaters, an Entertainment Venue in the Las Vegas Arts District. “The Venue is stunning. As as soon as we walked in and saw the gorgeous interior, and the ‘This must be the Place’ sign we knew this would be our new home,” they both said in unison with excitement in their voices. They went on to talk about how every aspect of the venue and the synergistic decision-making processes is simply perfection.

Guests can expect to experience more than just a brunch, and guests can also choose to do it “Their way.” Tickets start at just $35. Then everything else is added in additional package options or a la carte. “We wanted to make the entry price very affordable so that anyone could attend. We know that guests vary in their eating and drinking habits, so this formula puts the choice back in the hands of the audience,” said Mateo.

In addition to the great ambiance and delectable food and beverage options, the show will feature rotating cast members from all over. Many of their RPDR family are excited to join in support. The already sold-out show of "A Whole Brunch of Queens" makes its debut on Sunday, October 9th, and will feature guests DeJa Skye, Jasmine Kennedie, and Silky Nutmeg Ganache. On October 16th, will feature Silky, Kennedy Davenport, Jaymes Mansfield, and Mayhem Miller. This rotating cast will keep guests coming back week after week, always seeing something new. It's a Brunch, a party, a show, filled with many surprises. "People will be saying 'wow, did that just happen', said Coco.

After the brunch, guests are welcome to stay and explore the venue where they can catch a film at one of the movie theaters.

Alexis and Coco both star in RuPaul's Drag Race Live at the Flamingo Hotel & Casino. "We love performing on a big stage and it's a full-on production that guests love. However, we don't always get to have intimate interactions with the audience members. In this type of setting, we get to be right there with them, thank them face to face, and spend quality time together."

Their story has already inspired other Queens to take note. They have received so many messages saying that this has shown other entertainers that they can do it too. This is just another example of how representation matters. Paving the way for the next wave of entrepreneurs to start doing things for themselves, and taking care of their community.

Brunch is just the beginning for these "working girls".
