PALMS CASINO RESORT KICKS OFF PRIDE MONTH IN LAS VEGAS WITH TWO NEW LGBTQ+ EVENTS

End-of-Season Pool Party at SOAK and HalloQween at Ghostbar underscore Palms' continued commitment to diversity and inclusion

Palms Casino Resort proudly announces two LGBTQ+ inclusive events during Pride Month in Las Vegas. The first event closes out the infamous Las Vegas pool season with the Palms Pride Pool Party, followed by HalloQween, an LGBTQ+ inclusive Halloween event.

Palms Pride invites everyone to join us for a fabulous Pride pool party! This all-ages, LGBTQ+ pool party takes place on Sunday, October 9th at Palms Soak Pool. Attendees can enjoy specialty Pride-themed cocktails (and mock-tails) while swimming & dancing to music by DJ J Bray. The event will feature Emcee and Drag Diva Entertainer Esani Tsunami. There will also be Pride-themed swag and giveaways. Entry is free with RSVP, and Tables & Cabanas are available for purchase. The Event starts at 11:00 a.m. and ends at 5:00 p.m.

It's something I have dreamed of for a very long time," says Pattiani. "It makes a huge impact for our community to be seen and celebrated in such a big way. Locals and tourists have another mainstream hotel embracing and celebrating with us. This is a huge win for the entire city of Las Vegas. I hope to see everyone turn out for these events because they are going to be spectacular. This is a great opportunity to build a stronger relationship with our allies, especially ones that are authentic in their desire to champion equality."

Please visit www.Palms.com to get more information, RSVP, purchase tickets, reserve a cabana or VIP bottle service.

HalloQween, the second Palms Pride Month event will take place at the legendary rooftop venue, Ghostbar, on Sunday, October 30th. Featuring Drag Queen performances from celebrity female impersonators including Kenneth Blake as Elvira, and Tyler Cruz-Sanchez as Tayler Swift. In addition, Illusionists will perform a number as The Sanderson Sisters from Hocus Pocus. The night will also feature RuPaul's Drag Race superstar Coco Montrese. HalloQween will be the must-do event for Halloween for LGBTQ+ people and their allies. Attendees can compete in different costume categories for their chance to win cash prizes, including best over-the-top Drag, Best Duo, Sexiest, Scariest, and Best Impersonator. Doors open at 7:00 p.m. and ends at 4:00 a.m.

"We are thrilled to host these very special events and welcome the LGBTQ+ community to Palms Casino Resort," notes Cynthia Kiser Murphey, general manager of Palms Casino Resort. "Palms embraces and welcomes people from all walks of life to our property, and these high-energy and engaging events will offer a fabulous time for both locals and our guests. We look forward to celebrating this vibrant community together."

Palms has partnered with Las Vegas LGBTQ+ expert, Garrett Pattiani, to co-market these initiatives. His experience will incorporate the local community and beyond. "I am so excited to be working with Palms to create these amazing events.

Laura Sussman
Person of the Year

Laura Sussman grew up in Ohio, and earned her Bachelor's and Master's degrees from The Ohio State University. She spent the first 25 years of her career working in nonprofit organizations.

After moving to Las Vegas in 1997, she served as the Executive Directors of the Jewish Community Center of Southern Nevada and Temple Beth Shalom. In 2009, Laura and her wife, Wendy Kraft, opened Kraft-Sussman Funeral Services, the first woman owned and LGBTQIA owned Funeral home in Nevada. Over the years, it had become the highest rated funeral home in the state.

Laura has served on a number of nonprofit boards including The Center, her synagogue and the Trauma Intervention Program of Southern Nevada. She is the Immediate Past Chair of the Jewish Family Services Agency, and most recently was appointed by Gov. Sisolak, to serve on the Nevada Funeral and Cemetery Services Board. Laura served on the Human Rights Campaign (HRC) Steering Committee and co-chaired the HRC gala for two years.

Laura and Wendy have three incredible daughters, all of whom work for nonprofit organizations on the east coast.

Raul Daniels
Center Legacy Award

Born in 1979, Raul Daniels is a proud immigrant from Chihuahua, Mexico, where he lived on and off throughout his childhood. At the age of nine, Raul and his family emigrated to Las Vegas, Nevada in search of a better future. Raul's parents Servando and Leticia Daniels worked in construction and housekeeping respectively and raised a hard-working family that include Raul's brother Servando Jr. and sister Soraya.

Raul graduated from Las Vegas High School in 1997 where he served as Senior Class President. During high school, he fell in love with the hospitality industry while working as busboy at Wolfgang Puck's Spago, the first celebrity chef fine-dining restaurant in Las Vegas located at Caesar's Palace. After high school, Raul enrolled at the University of Nevada, Las Vegas where he graduated Magna Cum Laude and received a B.A. in International Business Administration in 2002.

That same year, Raul started his professional career working as the Special Events Manager for Neiman Marcus where he catered events for Oscar de la Renta, Dolce & Gabbana, and other notable fashion brands. He then moved back to the restaurant industry, managing Todd English's Olives at the Bellagio and NgNE Steakhouse at the Palms. The Morton, Maloof and Fertitta families were instrumental in Raul's seventeen-year career at the Palms where he eventually became a Vice President of the resort, leaving only briefly to form part of the opening team of Resorts World; but returned when the San Manuel Band of Mission Indians purchased the Palms in 2021.

Today, Raul is married to his incredible husband Ace Daniels and together they raise their beautiful and amazing son Alec Paris Daniels. Raul credits his achievements and early successes to LGBTQIA+ Community Center of Southern Nevada where he learned acceptance, pride, community service and gained access to friends and mentors who are still part of his life today.

Raul would like to thank his parents Servando and Leticia, his husband Ace, his son Alec, and all of his friends and mentors who have contributed to this honor tonight.

Carl Nassib
Lanny D. Love Hero Award

Carl Paul Nassib is an American football outside linebacker for the Tampa Bay Buccaneers of the National Football League. He played college football for the Penn State Nittany Lions, earning unanimous All-American honors as a senior in 2015. Nassib was drafted by the Cleveland Browns in the third round of the 2016 NFL Draft, and has also played for the Las Vegas Raiders. In 2021, Nassib became the first active NFL player to publicly come out as gay and to play in a game.

On June 21, 2021, during Pride Month, Nassib released a statement on his Instagram account stating that he is gay, becoming the first active NFL player to come out publicly. In the statement, he pledged to donate $100,000 to The Trevor Project, an organization dedicated to crisis intervention and suicide prevention among LGBTQ youth, and to continue to champion their work. He received public support from the NFL, Raiders, Penn State, and current and former athletes. That day, jerseys and T-shirts with his name were the top sellers among all NFL players at Fanatics, the league's sales partner.

Russell Davis
Volunteer of the Year

Long, long ago, Russell Davis grew up in Henderson, NV. Russ likes to say he is so old that the ship he served on in the Navy is now a museum. Ready to see the world, after high school Russ enlisted in the Navy, patrolling from Sydney to Siberia on the USS Midway. After his military service, and a Mormon mission in the Midwest, Russ married and started his family of seven, working as a janitor at McCarran (now Reid) airport while attending UNLV. Russ earned his BS in Business Administration, and by now had been promoted to a job in the airport control center that he loved, emergency dispatcher, and he remained at the airport for 35 years. As his family grew, so did his interest in social justice and equality. Russ and his wife realized that their religion no longer shared their values if it could not support their gay son. Together they left their church and went to the Commercial Center to get involved at The Center. Since that fateful day, Russ has become the longest-serving weekly volunteer with over 5000 hours, volunteering through losing his wife, through COVID, and through cancer! He has volunteered in every program of The Center and countless events, including Honorary. In addition to The Center, Russ loves to travel and troll conservatives online.

Honorary Chairwoman Denise McCurry, the Honorary Host Committee, and The Center's Board of Directors cordially invite you to join us for The Center's annual Gala event.
