ICONS

CELEBRATING LGBTQ+ HISTORY MONTH

Whether you're a local or tourist, we always feature our favorite spots along with all the new and exciting things our city has to offer.

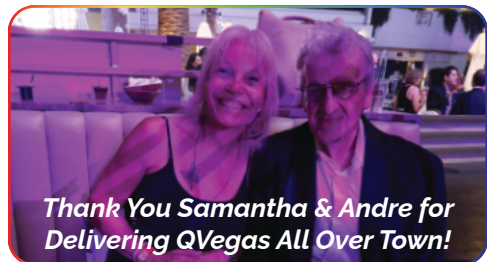

Each year, Equality Forum highlights "Icons," influential individuals from various walks of life—activists, artists, athletes, politicians, and more—who have made significant contributions to LGBTQ+ history and visibility. This week we honor the Icons for 2024 and the vital roles they play in advocating for LGBTQ+ rights or excelling in their respective fields.

If you missed SCREAM'D last year, DO NOT MISS IT THIS YEAR! Majestic Repertory Theater has tickets on sale now through November 1. The Beverly Theater also has an extensive lineup of horror films screening this month.

This week we also welcome thousands of athletes for the Gay Softball World Series. All games are free and open to the public, and there are epic events all week long, with a street festival closing party sponsored by Piranha and Gipsy!

VIRGO

Honey-child, let me spill the celestial tea for all you Virgo darlings stepping into October 2024. The universe is about to serve you a platter of fresh opportunities, so strut into this month with all the confidence of a queen owning the runway. Love is calling your name, sugar, and it's high time to sashay away from those heartaches of the past. Career-wise, don't let anyone dim your sparkle. You're about to shine brighter than a disco ball at midnight, so pucker up, keep those heels high, and get ready to dazzle the world. Remember, in the game of life, you're always a star, so werk it!"

SCREAM'D: An Unauthorized Musical Parody is currently running at Majestic Repertory Theatre in Las Vegas. This hilarious and nostalgic show is a tribute to Wes Craven's Scream franchise, blending horror with humor in a playful parody format. The plot follows the familiar storyline of small-town teens terrorized by a masked killer, while the musical score features a lively '90s soundtrack, including hits from No Doubt, Britney Spears, and N'Sync. The combination of campy humor and nostalgic tunes makes it a unique, interactive experience that makes it a must-see in Downtown Las Vegas.

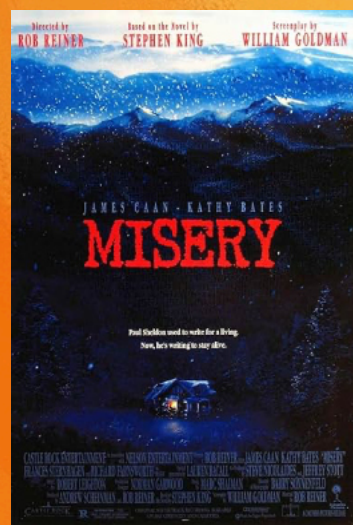

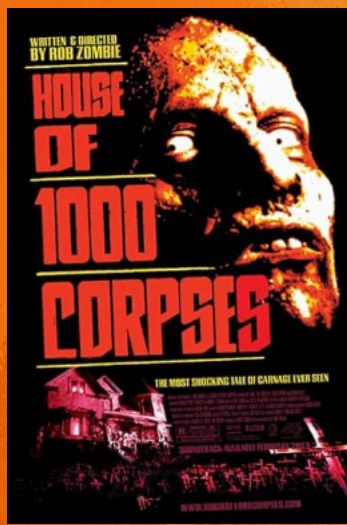

Now showing through November 1, get tickets at majesticrepertory.com before they sell out.

The Beverly Theater in Las Vegas is celebrating the spooky season throughout October with "The Wake 2024," a haunted cinema event showcasing 50 iconic horror films. This annual tradition offers a meticulously curated lineup of both classic and contemporary horror films, perfect for fans looking to indulge in thrills and chills. Titles range from well-known cult favorites like "The Evil Dead" to haunted classics like "Poltergeist", screening during the final days of October.

New this year is the Slash Pass, a $100 ticket ($75 for members) that provides unlimited access to all the screenings in the series. For more information on specific showings and ticket details, visit thebeverlytheater.com

Editor's Note: We're not sure why Pink Flamingos (screening on October 18) is part of the Halloween-month lineup, but we're not mad about it at all. 🍷 🍷

lgbt<sup>TM</sup> HISTORY MONTH

OCTOBER

31 Days. 31 Icons.

LGBT History Month, celebrated annually in October, is a national and international initiative dedicated to recognizing and celebrating the achievements and contributions of LGBTQ+ individuals throughout history. The lgbthistorymonth.com website, a project by Equality Forum, serves as the primary platform for this observance, offering a vast collection of educational resources, historical narratives, and information about notable LGBTQ+ figures.

Ron Ansin: A philanthropist, business leader, and LGBTQ activist, Ansin supported numerous charitable causes and played a key role in advancing LGBTQ rights. He publicly came out as bisexual in the early 2000s and was a passionate supporter of marriage equality until his death in 2023.

Laphonza Butler: Butler is a former union organizer and political strategist who became the first Black openly LGBTQ U.S. Senator in 2023. She has led the SEIU, EMILY's List, and is known for her work on equality, labor rights, reproductive rights, and progressive political causes.

Maki Carrousel: Carrousel was a pioneering transgender Japanese actor who appeared in television and film starting in the 1960s. She completed gender reassignment surgery in 1973 and later overcame legal and social challenges to gain recognition as a trailblazing figure in transgender representation.

Desmond Child: A Cuban-American gay songwriter, Child is renowned for his collaborations with top music stars, including Bon Jovi, Aerosmith, and Ricky Martin. He co-wrote numerous Top 40 hits and is a Grammy-winning, Hall of Fame-inducted figure with an enduring impact on rock and pop music.

Rob Halford: Halford is the lead singer of Judas Priest, aning heavy metal band. He became one of the first openly gay figures in heavy metal, breaking stereotypes in the industry and inspiring LGBTQ+ fans worldwide.

Jeanne Hoff: Hoff was a pioneering transgender psychiatrist who rev care for transgender patients. Her work challenged traditional psychiatric views of gender identity and laid the foundation for modern gender-affirming care. She passed away in 2023.

Susan Love: A pioneering breast cancer researcher and women's health advocate, Dr. Susan Love co-founded the National Breast Cancer Coalition. She authored Dr. Susan Love's Breast Book, a key resource for breast cancer patients. She passed away from leukemia in 2023.

George Michael: A British pop icon, Michael rose to global fame with Wham! and his solo career, producing hits like "Faith" and "Careless Whisper." An LGBTQ+ advocate, he came out publicly in 1998 after a high-profile arrest. He died in 2016 at 53.

Pat Parker: A Black lesbian feminist poet and activist, Pat Parker's writing focused on themes of social justice, poverty, race, and sexual identity. A lifelong civil rights advocate, she co-founded the Black Women's Revolutionary Council and served as an influential voice in feminist movements.

Mark Pocan: Pocan is an openly gay U.S. Congressman representing Wisconsin's 2nd District. A progressive advocate for labor, LGBTQ+ rights, and social justice, he co-chairs the Congressional Equality Caucus and has consistently championed equality and progressive causes since his election in 2012.

Herb Ritts: Ritts was a renowned photographer known for his black-and-white portraits and homoerotic imagery. His work with celebrities and supermodels became iconic in the fashion industry. Ritts died from complications of HIV in 2002, leaving behind a legacy in photography.

Beth Robinson: Robinson is the first openly lesbian judge appointed to the U.S. Court of Appeals in 2021. She previously served as an associate justice on the Vermont Supreme Court and was a key figure in the fight for marriage equality in the United States.

Sam Smith: A Grammy and Academy Award-winning nonbinary singer and songwriter, Sam

Smith gained international fame with hits like "Stay With Me" and "Writing's on the Wall." Smith came out as nonbinary in 2019 and advocates for LGBTQ+ and gender-identity rights

William Dorsey Swann: Born into slavery, Swann became the first known self-identified drag queen in the U.S. He organized drag balls and led the "House of Swann." In 1896, he was arrested for hosting a drag ball and later petitioned for a presidential pardon.

Peter Tatchell: Peter Tatchell is a lifelong human rights activist from Australia who moved to London and joined the Gay Liberation Front. He fought for LGBTQ+ rights, co-founded OutRage!, and led campaigns against homophobia, racism, and sexism. Tatchell has participated in over 3,000 acts of civil disobedience.

Diana Taurasi: Taurasi is a 10-time WNBA All-Star, six-time U.S. Olympic gold medalist, and three-time WNBA champion. Known as the "GOAT," she holds the record for the most career points in WNBA history. Taurasi is married to her former teammate Penny Taylor, with whom she has two children.

Each year, the site highlights "Icons," influential individuals from various walks of life—activists, artists, athletes, politicians, and more—who have made significant contributions to LGBTQ+ history and visibility. These Icons are featured daily throughout the month of October, with detailed biographical profiles that offer insights into their lives, struggles, and legacies. The Icons for 2024 each play a vital role in advocating for LGBTQ+ rights or excelling in their respective fields.

The website also provides extensive educational tools designed for use in schools, workplaces, and community settings. These resources aim to foster inclusivity, promote awareness, and encourage discussions about LGBTQ+ history, equality, and ongoing struggles for civil rights. The emphasis is on providing accurate, engaging, and accessible materials that showcase how LGBTQ+ individuals have shaped, and continue to shape, global history.

In addition to its educational mission, LGBT History Month also serves as a source of inspiration and pride for the LGBTQ+ community. By acknowledging the significant contributions of LGBTQ+ Icons across various fields, the project helps to counter the historical erasure of queer narratives and celebrate the diverse identities that contribute to the richness of human history.

Margaret Chung: Chung was the first female Chinese-American physician in the U.S. Known for "adopting" WWII servicemen, Chung supported the Chinese military effort and was a trailblazer for women in medicine. She is believed to have had relationships with prominent women, including poet Elsa Gidlow.

Christian Cooper: Cooper is a pioneering Black comic book writer, LGBTQ activist, and birder. He became widely known after a viral incident in Central Park. Cooper helped introduce Marvel's first LGBTQ characters and recently authored his memoir, Better Living Through Birding, and hosts Extraordinary Birder.

River Gallo: An award-winning Salvadorian-American filmmaker and intersex activist, Gallo is known for the film

Ponyboi, the first of its kind with an intersex protagonist. Gallo uses their platform to advocate for intersex rights and has collaborated with leading brands in entertainment and fashion.

Robert Garcia: The first LGBTQ immigrant elected to Congress, Robert Garcia represents California's 42nd District. A champion of equality, LGBTQ, and labor rights, he previously served as the first LGBTQ mayor of Long Beach and gained national recognition for his leadership during the COVID-19 pandemic.

Kevin Naff: Naff is an award-winning journalist and editor of the Washington Blade, the nation's oldest LGBTQ+ news outlet. He co-owns the Blade and has championed LGBTQ+ representation in media for over two decades. He published his first book in 2023.

Fabian Nelson: The first openly LGBTQ+ lawmaker in Mississippi, Fabian Nelson is a real estate professional turned politician. Elected in 2023, he advocates for Medicaid expansion, economic development, and LGBTQ+ rights, becoming a trailblazer for LGBTQ+ representation in a deeply conservative state.

Yannick Nézet-Séguin: Nézet-Séguin is an award-winning international conductor leading The Philadelphia Orchestra and the Metropolitan Opera. A celebrated talent in classical music, he has earned global recognition and multiple Grammy awards for his work with orchestras and operas.

Robyn Ochs: A bisexual activist, educator, and editor, Ochs has dedicated her career to LGBTQ+ rights.

She co-founded the Bisexual Resource Center and edits Bi Women Quarterly. Ochs advocates for bi+ visibility and educates others on the complexities of sexual orientation.

Richard Schneider: Founder and editor of The Gay & Lesbian Review Worldwide, Schneider has provided a platform for LGBTQ+ intellectual discourse for over 30 years. With a Ph.D. in sociology, he has published several books and received accolades for his contributions to LGBTQ+ literature and culture.

Robt Martin Seda-Schreiber: An artist and activist, Seda-Schreiber founded The Bayard Rustin

Center for Social Justice. He created New Jersey's first middle school gay-straight alliance and provides a safe space for LGBTQ+ youth. He is a social justice advocate and a prominent figure in educational activism.

Jackie Shane: A pioneering transgender R&B singer, Shane gained fame in the 1960s with her hit "Any Other Way" in Toronto. Known for her dynamic performances and gender nonconformity, she left a lasting legacy in music before a late-life Grammy nomination for her retrospective work.

Ari Shapiro: An award-winning journalist and co-host of NPR's All Things Considered, Shapiro has reported on global issues and is also an entertainer. He has won numerous journalism awards and co-authored a cabaret show with actor Alan Cumming. His memoir, The Best Strangers in the World, became a bestseller.

Colton Underwood: A former NFL player and TV personality, Underwood made history as the first star of

The Bachelor to come out as gay. He publicly revealed his sexuality in 2021 and later starred in Netflix's Coming Out Colton. He married Jordan C. Brown in 2023.

Luther Vandross: A Grammy-winning R&B legend known as "The Velvet Voice," Vandross sold over 40 million records worldwide. Despite struggles with his sexuality and health, his 2003 album Dance With My Father achieved ultimate success. Vandross died from a stroke-related complication in 2005.

Joel Wachs: A former Los Angeles City Council member, Wachs is known for his lifelong arts advocacy. After serving 30 years on the Council, he became president of The Andy Warhol Foundation, overseeing its transformative support of contemporary arts and LGBTQ+ issues.

IMPORTANT ELECTION 2024 UPDATE!

The QVegas Voter Guide will be integrated into the new Queer News Network website.

QVegas is proud to lead the technology efforts behind this affiliation of independent LGBTQ+ Media Outlets.

Visit qvegas.com/vote for everything you need for the 2024 election.

Voter Registration Information • Polling Locations • Nevada Impact Endorsements • Silver State Equality Endorsements • HRC Endorsements and more!

Early Voting Start October 19th

Real-time election updates will be live on QNN on November 5th.

Visit queernn.com

In response to the alarming rise of anti-LGBTQ+ rhetoric and actions across the political landscape, a groundbreaking coalition of 11 independent LGBTQ+ newsrooms has come together to form the Queer News Network (QNN). This initiative aims to provide in-depth and nuanced coverage of the 2024 General Election through an LGBTQ+ lens, ensuring that the voices and experiences of the community are at the forefront of political discourse.

QNN aims to emphasize the importance of insightful coverage that speaks to the exploitation of anti-LGBTQ+ rhetoric and violence in the upcoming election. This commitment to fair reporting is essential not only for the queer community but also for advocates of democracy and human rights.

From October 1 to November 12, eleven participating newsrooms will identify candidates and contribute content to a comprehensive news site, which will serve as a central hub for queer voters across the U.S.
