Whether you're a local or tourist, we always feature our favorite spots along with all the new and exciting things our city has to offer.

What started as an experiment in radical expression, fashion, and fuckery has now grown into one of the premier events held at The Phoenix every year. Hosted by the incomparable Keyska Diva and owner Gabriel Cressy, the Fancy as F*ck ball spotlights local designers, entertainment, and artists.

As we celebrate our local LGBTQ+ venues here in Las Vegas, we also mourn over the loss of lives in Colorado Springs. Yet again, another shooting takes the lives of five individuals from the LGBTQ+ community.

Russ White & Garrett Pattiani
Publishers, QVegas & QLife Media

Every week we spend a lot of time putting together the QVegas Guide to Las Vegas. It's a labor of love trying to find all the events, businesses and activities that we think the LGBTQ+ community would like.

We rely on advertisers to keep this a free resource. If you want to promote your event, business, or activity, contact us today!

Near the stroke of midnight on November 20, 2022, 22 year old Anderson Lee Aldrich entered Club Q in Colorado Springs. He killed 5 people, and injured 19 others. He was subdued by two individuals in the bar and faces five counts of first-degree murder and five counts of a bias-motivated crime causing bodily injury. Two firearms were recovered at the scene. Club Q is closed indefinitely.

COLORADO SPRINGS POLICE DEPARTMENT

Too often society loses track of the victims of these sad and tragic events. We strive to give victims the dignity and respect they deserve, as well as shine the light of public attention to the victims. Therefore, we are identifying them now.

We respect all of our community members, including our LGBTQ+ community. Therefore we will be identifying the victims by how they identified themselves and how their families have loved and identified them.

Kelly Loving: She/Her

Daniel Aston: He/Him

Derrick Rump: He/Him

Ashley Paugh: She/Her

Raymond Green Vance: He/Him

We also want to identify the two heroes who intervened inside of Club Q. Their exact actions are part of the investigation, so we can't discuss the specifics out of respect for the judicial process, but with their permission, we want to acknowledge their heroic actions.

They are Thomas James and Richard Fierro.

"Our hearts are broken for the victims, their family and friends, and everyone affected by the horrific shooting in Colorado Springs. The Center sends our love and support to the LGBTQ+ family at Club Q.

Especially as our community recognized Transgender Day of Remembrance – this tragedy reminds us of the important and critical work still to do so that LGBTQ+ people everywhere can feel safe to live their authentic lives.

We shall never forget the lives lost at Club Q or the 32 transgender and gender non-conforming people who have been killed so far this year alone.

In their memory, The Center remains steadfast in our mission to serve as a safe haven for all."

—John Waldron, CEO, The LGBTQIA+ Community Center of Southern Nevada

"LGBTQ+ hate crimes are at an all-time high. Politicians' reckless rhetoric toward trans people, which heightened over the past two years leading up to the past election, has only added fuel to that fire. This year alone, more than 30 trans individuals have been murdered, 90 percent of those were with a gun. We stand shoulder-to-shoulder with those fighting to end this epidemic of gun violence. We must also stand up to those who aim to dehumanize the LGBTQ+ community, especially our trans sisters and brothers, by spreading disinformation and sowing hate for political gain. The politicians and groups who spread this vitriol should be held responsible for their part in stoking anti-LGBTQ+ sentiment.

—André Wade, State Director
Silver State Equality

"The people of this country deserve better from the legislators we elect. Thoughts and prayers have never been enough. We need to grieve; we need to heal but we also need Congress to take action. And don't worry...we will keep dancing, prancing and living out loud but we will also organize and fight back with ferocity, love, and truth until nondiscrimination and gun reform are realized."

—Kierra Johnson, Executive Director,
National LGBTQ Task Force

"The brutal attack on patrons and staff at Club Q in Colorado Springs Saturday night is yet another heartbreaking mass shooting tragedy, this one leaving at least five people dead, some 25 others injured, and many more traumatized. That Club Q was preparing to host Transgender Day of Remembrance events this morning makes this violence even more painful. Our hearts are broken by this violence, and by the anti-LGBTQ+ and other hate that is escalating across our country."

—Kristin Rowe-Finkbeiner
Executive Director and CEO, MomsRising
